HAS FLANKED RUSSIAN LINE

Czar's Cavalry Is Unable to Prevent Kuroki's Movement.

IS NEAR RAILROAD

INPU FIGHT IS REPORTED

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]

SIN-MIN-TIN, Sept. 28.—Gen. Kuroki has succeeded in turning the Russian flank, according to reports received here tonight. The Russian cavalry under Rennenkampff was unable to withstand the Japanese advance, and Kuroki's advance guard is said to be well to the north of the Russian position and 20 miles to the east of the railroad, toward which he is pushing as rapidly as possible.

MUKDEN, Sept. 28.—Details of the fighting near Inpu, between Rentsiaputze and the railroad, September 26, show that Gen. Mistchenko's scouts, accompanied by a battery of artillery, attacked a Japanese position where there were a battery of artillery, two squadrons of cavalry and two companies of infantry. The Japanese were shelled out of their position on a hill, and suffered heavy loss. As they retired the Russians occupied the hill until nightfall, when they, too, retired under cover of darkness after having lost only three men.

Dr. Matvieff, who was captured by the Japanese at Liao-Yang, says that the Japanese are suffering severely from dysentery, and that they begged his assistance in combating the disease. Japanese officers of the staff are excellent linguists. Many of them speak English and German, as well as some Russian. The Japanese army is living almost entirely on rice and preserved foods, but it is comfortably equipped, many officers having even arm-chairs among their baggage. The principal Japanese fear is for forage for their horses, for during the winter the country is swept clean for miles on each side of the railway, and the inhabitants are reluctant to sell anything.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 29.—Movements at the front, so far as disclosed by the meager dispatches received here, are confined almost to continuous outpost skirmishes by means of which Gen. Kuropatkin is keeping in close touch with the Japanese along the whole of their line. Field Marshal Oyama's advance appears to be extremely deliberate. There are no indications as yet that he has begun to overlap Russian positions.

The superiority of the Russian cavalry is beginning to be apparent. They have had the best of it in a number of minor encounters.

It appears now that Gen. Rennenkampf's movement to the southward on September 19 extended beyond the distance indicated by first reports. His Cossacks made a rapid sweep on September 22 and struck a Japanese force at Bensihu, threatening their communications and causing considerable excitement.

Reinforcements are rapidly arriving at Mukden and many convalescents are returning to duty. It is reported that Gen. Kuropatkin has made a requisition upon the authorities here for additional officers to make up the heavy losses in killed and wounded in the battle of Liao-Yang.

CHEFOO, Sept. 28.—(Special Cablegram.)—The Japanese artillery and engineers have been extremely busy at Port Arthur for the past two days. Several breaches have been made in the inner defenses and a number of the Russian batteries have been silenced. The heavy siege guns are now so placed that many of them are now within point blank range of the fortress.

Under cover of what is described by those who have seen it, as the most awful artillery fire that has ever been turned against a beleaguered fortress, the Japanese engineers have pushed their trenches and parallels steadily forward until they are in some instances within a quarter of a mile of the Russian positions. From these positions mines will be driven under the walls of the fortress.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Daily Mail's Liao-Yang correspondent, telegraphing September 23, says:

"The winter equipment for the Japanese troops is completed. Fresh supplies of ammunition have arrived, and the army is ready to march at a moment's notice. The personal treatment of foreign correspondents with the Japanese has been completely revolutionized."

DEMAND BETTER ODDS.

Parker Money Loosening Up at Odds of Two to One.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Parker money was offered with more freedom in the Broad street curb market today at odds of 4 to 10. Brokers with commissions to place Roosevelt money were demanding odds of 2 to 1. Dunnell and Buchanan had $2,000 on Roosevelt, which they offered to bet against $1,000 on Parker. John J. Judge offered $1,000 on Roosevelt against $500 on Parker.

Even money prevailed that Roosevelt would carry the state of New York, but odds were offered of 10 to 9 that Herrick will be elected. An offer of $2,000 by Bunnell and Buchanan on Herrick at these odds was not covered.

It's "Grandpap Bryan" Now.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—William Jennings Bryan is a grandfather, a daughter having been born to his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Leavitt, in New Orleans Saturday. Mrs. Leavitt was Miss Ruth Bryan. She was married at Lincoln, Neb., last October. Mr. Leavitt is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron L. Leavitt of Newport, who have received the news of the birth and the information that mother and daughter are doing well.

GENERAL CORBIN FAVORS MARRIAGE

He Says Sentiment Is Nice, but Facts Are Stubborn in Married Life.

HE BELIEVES IN FAMILIES

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 28.

Maj.-Gen. Henry Corbin, who called on President Roosevelt today to bid him goodby, before departure for the Philippines, expressed himself as still firm in his conviction on the subject of army marriages.

"I have seen a quantity of sentimental rot in the newspapers," said the general, "that was intended as answers to things I was supposed to have said. The alleged quotations from my order and my conversation did suffice, in truth, to make me appear ridiculous.

"There is no man living who is more in favor of marriage, and of the home and family, than I am. I approve of marriage under proper circumstances, in the army and out. But I believe the officers of the army should be required to give of their best to the service of their country, and they should not be permitted to encumber their lives with responsibilities which prevent their attainment of this excellence of service.

"Sentiment is a very pretty thing, but once in a while it is well to consider facts. Facts, when they obtrude themselves upon the married state and threaten its happiness, are very stubborn things."

DEADLY AUTOMOBILE CLAIMS ANOTHER LIFE

Harvard Instructor Run Down and Killed by Harvard Student in Flying Machine.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BOSTON, Sept. 29.—From a compound fracture of the skull and internal injuries, the result of being run down by an automobile on Massachusetts avenue, near Harvard bridge, at midnight, Arthur L. Wyman, an instructor in the chemical laboratory at Harvard, and a son of Charles T. Wyman, Russian consul in Boston, died at the Stillman infirmary in Cambridge at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

Mr. Wyman and R. C. Wells, another Harvard instructor, were taking a walk and were crossing Massachusetts avenue when the automobile struck Mr. Wyman. The automobile is owned and was being driven by Leon Strauss, a Harvard student, of 41 Matthews hall. The police did not think it necessary to detain him after he had told his story.

CAPT. BOYD TO FRONT.

Officer of Tenth U. S. Cavalry Joins the Rusian Army as Military Attache.

SIN-MIN-TIN, Sept. 28.—Capt. Boyd of the United States army has received permission to go to the Russian front as military attache.

The officer referred to in the foregoing dispatch is Capt. Charles T. Boyd of the Tenth cavalry, assigned to duty at the University of Nevada, who has been for some time in the war zone with an old friend, Maj. Lewis L. Seaman of New York, a former volunteer officer. Capt. Boyd was formerly major in the Eleventh volunteer cavalry.

THEIR SON WAS DEAD, TOO.

New Florence Couple Returned from Funeral to Find Death in Their Home.

GREENSBURG, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Andrew Bennett, aged 17 years, son of justice of the peace and Mrs. O. M. Bennett of New Florence, was returning from school today with Russell Igo, aged 16 years, when they stopped at the latter's home to examine a new shotgun. Igo was handling the weapon when it exploded, killing Bennett. His parents were returning from the funeral of the late Jesse Bennett at West Fairfield and learned of the accident when they saw the body lying in a pool of blood.

John W. Morrison Honored.

TOO LATE TO SEE HIS MOTHER DIE

So John Tunchun of Pittsburgh Took Poison in the Streets of Baltimore.

LOSS OF POSITION LAST STRAW

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BALTIMORE, Sept. 28.—Despondent because he had not been able to get to the bedside of his mother in time to see her before she died, John Tunchun, a brakeman, whose home is in Pittsburgh, tonight swallowed a quantity of corrosive sublimate while he was standing at the corner of Baltimore and Eutaw streets and in full sight of a number of passers-by.

He was hurried to the University hospital by the police, but at a late hour was in a most critical condition. At the place where the man had boarded the police were informed that five weeks ago when he was informed that his mother was ill in Pittsburgh he asked for leave of absence from the railroad, but was refused. A week later he received a telegram urging him to come home at once and left without permission. He reached Pittsburgh just in time to find that his mother had been buried.

This preyed upon his mind, and when he returned to Baltimore his troubles were increased by being told that he had forfeited his position. Two weeks of fruitless search for a position followed, and the probably fatal act tonight was the final chapter of a life's tragedy.

KAISER'S CANCER AGAIN GIVING HIM TROUBLE

Physicians Urge Another Trip to the Mediterranean, but Royal Patient Delays the Journey.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—Rumors have been current for some time to the effect that the kaiser's throat is again troubling him and that there has been a recurrence of the cancerous symptoms which threatened his majesty's life some time ago.

The announcement today that the royal physicians have decided to urge his majesty to make another trip to the Mediterranean has given substance to these rumors in the minds of the people. While it is officially stated that there is no danger of serious trouble with the kaiser's throat, it is said that his physicians are not thoroughly satisfied with the symptoms, and this proposed Mediterranean trip may be regarded as a precautionary measure. The kaiser does not desire to leave Germany at this time, and will not unless it is made apparent to him that the necessity for it is very strong.

GURNEY TO BE RECALLED.

Automobile Ride May Cost Him His Job With the Washington Legation.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—(Special Cable.)—Hugh Gurney, the third secretary of the British embassy at Washington, will, it is said, be speedily withdrawn from the United States and assigned to some other duty. The matter will be arranged quietly and in all probability the first step will be the granting of a leave of absence to the young diplomat, which so far as Washington is concerned will be permanent.

The attitude of the United States has been perfectly correct in the matter; but the foreign office is very much vexed that Mr. Gurney should have taken action which has laid a member of the foreign service open to ridicule, even though he was standing within his rights.

JUDGE HANGS HIMSELF UPON A WALL PEG

MONTPELIER, VT., Sept. 28.—Judge C. D. Woodward of the local municipal court hanged himself on a wall peg in his office today. A letter bearing the judge's signature, found on the desk, stated that he intended to commit suicide because his enemies were seeking the downfall of himself and his family.

Lady Curzon Is Better.

WALMER CASTLE, KENT, Sept. 28.—(9:22 p. m.)—Lady Curzon passed a comfortable day. Her condition has improved.

SENATOR DICK IS WELL SATISFIED

Says Ohio Will Split Even on Fight on Congressional Candidates.

THINKS WHOLE COUNTRY SAFE

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

Senator Charles Dick of Ohio said today, in discussing the political outlook in the Buckeye state, that indications now point to a majority for Roosevelt and Fairbanks fully up to the high water mark of 1900 when President McKinley carried the state by 70,000.

"We may," continued Senator Dick, "lose one congressional district we now hold that is naturally strongly Democratic, but we shall, on the other hand, gain one that is now represented by a Democrat; so that we shall at least break even and retain our present control of 17 districts out of 21. The party in Ohio is in splendid fighting trim. We shall lose no Republican votes, and we shall receive many thousand votes from gold Democrats, free silver Democrats and conservative men, who, locally, are Democrats, but who are unwilling this year to risk a change of administration.

"Lying between West Virginia and Indiana, we get in Ohio a reflex of the sentiment of both states, and our information leads us to believe that they, too, are safely Republican. There is a reason for this. Like Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana are interested in three great interests, mining, manufacturing and agriculture. The influences that appeal to the Ohio voter appeal with equal force to the voters of West Virginia and Indiana and hence, as I say, I have no reason to doubt Republican success in either."

BUT A FEW HOURS MORE.

Senator Hoar's Physicians Believe He Will Not Awaken from His Stupor.

WORCESTER, MASS, Sept. 28.—United States Senator George F. Hoar's condition continues most critical. He has not rallied from the sleep and stupor into which he fell Tuesday afternoon, and it is feared that he is in his last sleep. He partakes of no nourishment, being too weak to swallow.

The attending physicians said late tonight there is absolutely no hope, but are unwilling to venture an opinion as to whether Senator Hoar will die during the night, or live probably for two or three days. The remarkable vitality he has shown during his present illness may be sufficient to fight death until the last of the week.

NEW YORKER'S AWFUL ACT.

Kills His Wife and Himself While Struggling With His Daughter in His Arms.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Clasping his 16-year-old daughter, Teresa, close to his body with his left arm to prevent her from interfering with his plan of murder and suicide, Philip Stryble, aged 53, reached around her with his right arm and stabbed himself in the heart and dropped dead about 8 o'clock tonight. He did not mean to harm the girl, but she received a severe gash on the right hand.

As he fell the body of Stryble landed across that of his wife. He had stabbed her in the neck two or three minutes before, cutting the jugular vein.

MORE MEAT TROUBLE.

Teamsters Threaten Another Strike Unless Reinstatements Are Made.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Trouble between the big packers and the packing house teamsters has broken out again and a committee of the Teamsters' joint council will endeavor tomorrow to restore peace.

The teamsters charge the packers have not reinstated all the strikers and at the last meeting of the union it was decided to strike again unless this was done. According to the officers of the union each of the five big packers has refused to reinstate one teamster.

Russia Expels Japanese.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—The Japanese refugees who lived in Russian territory at the outbreak of the war will be sent across the German frontier October 1 on their way to Japan. They consist mainly of merchants and laborers from East Siberia.

UNCLE SAM'S BIG BARGAIN

Representative Boutelle Answers Judge Parker's Claim of Deficiency.

PANAMA GOOD DEAL

DEPENDS ON HOW ONE FIGURES

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 28.

Representative Henry S. Boutelle of Illinois during a call at the White House today, severely criticised Judge Parker for his statements as to the financial management of the government during the Republican administration.

"One of the most reprehensible features of the Democratic candidate's letter of acceptance was the accusation of bad financial managment on the part of the Republicans, and the assertion that the last fiscal year shows a deficit of $42,000,000. In the history of the world there has never been a more brilliant or successful financial administration by any government. Every expense of the Spanish war has been paid, the interest-bearing debt has been reduced and the treasury is paying many millions of dollars interest less each year than it did eight years ago.

"The business men of the United States know and realize this and will not take kindly to the assertions of the Democratic nominee which lack candor. In the regular operating expenses of the government last year there was a surplus of $13,000,000. If the $50,000,000 payment of the canal and the loan of $4,000,000 to the St. Louis exposition are counted in, there was, it is true, a deficit. But we want to look at the thing this way. A farmer has done well for many years and laid by much money from his surplus each year. He finally wants to purchase another piece of valuable property. He goes to his bank and pays $5,000 for the property. Will anyone say for a minute that the farmer is running behind and going into debt because he has added this valuable property to his possessions.

"For many years the United States laid aside a surplus. It found opportunity to buy the canal and to take possession of the finest piece of property of its kind in the world. It paid out so much that its expenditures in one year, including that sum, were in excess of receipts by $42,000,000. Its regular expenditures, however, were below its receipts by $13,000,000.

WOMAN WITH A BIG HAT SENDS HILL TO DEFEAT

Well-Known Democrat Was Worsted Last Night in Encounter at Theater.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—David B. Hill, seasoned warrior of many a famous political battle, was worsted last night by no more formidable an adversary than a woman with a hat. The engagement took place in the New Amsterdam theater and though all the odds were against the woman, she held her position firmly. So did the hat, until Mr. Hill was obliged to acknowledge defeat which he did with an amiable smile.

After an usher had politely requested the lady to remove her hat and meeting with a scornful rebuff, the manager, Mark Luescher, went to Mr. Hill and asked him if he would not like to change his seat, pleading his helplessness, in view of the obstinacy of the woman with the hat.

Mr. Hill smiled and said he would resign and sit where he was. The woman and the hat, still inseparable, triumphantly departed in ignorance of the identity of their victim.

THEY WERE GRAFTERS, TOO.

Buffalo Aldermen Are Indicted for Receiving Bribes of Small Amounts.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Seven aldermen or ex-aldermen are under indictment charged with receiving bribes. The grand jury reported this afternoon and the police tonight notified the men indicted that they must appear tomorrow morning in the supreme court to plead to the charge of bribe-taking.

The men indicted are: Pierce, Fifth ward; Hoest, Sixth ward; Harp, Twenty-fifth ward, and former Aldermen Schenider, Roedel, Belner and Busch. It is the understanding that the indictments were found upon two transactions and that the amounts involved in each case were comparatively small.

KING GEORGE IS DYING.

Dresden Dispatches State the Aged Monarch Is Nearing His End in Saxon Palace.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—(Special Cable.)—Dispatches from Dresden received here last night and today leave no doubt that the end of the old King George of Saxony is drawing near.

Ever since the king, who insisted on going on a hunting trip last week, was brought back to the palace with a severe cold it was evident that his chances of recovery were exceedingly slim, and the physicians in attendance have now given up all attempts to alleviate the difficulty of breathing and the violent attacks of coughing during which it is feared the king may suddenly expire.

ROOSEVELT IS PARTY ISSUE

Senator Beveridge Flings Back Taunt Into the Democratic Camp.

SPEAKS IN INDIANA

Holds Parker Up to Ignominy for His Vote on Money Question.

DEFENDS PROTECTIVE TARIFF

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—The first Republican meeting of the campaign at Indianapolis was held in Tomlinson hall tonight. An illuminated procession escorted Senator Albert J. Beveridge and Congressman Overstreet to the hall. Congressman Overstreet presided and introduced Senator Beveridge, who spoke in part as follows:

"Even if the opposition controlled house, senate and president, they themselves could not tell what kind of tariff law they would pass. For some of them, like Mr. Bryan, are free traders; some, like Mr. Gorman, are protectionists. Think of an engineer trying to run his engine backward and forward at the same time; what would happen to that engine is what would happen to the country with the opposition in power.

"What is the tariff? It is not an artificial structure to be taken apart and put together like the trick box of a juggler. It is the development of a theory of statesmanship. It is a growth and not a creation. Those who prepared the soil of this nation planted in that soil the seeds of the American industrial independence which men call protection. If here and there a branch now needs pruning, those who planted the tree and have guarded its growth should do it, not those who resisted its planting in the first place, and who for a hundred years have sought to lay the ax to its roots.

Discussing at length the financial question, Senator Beveridge said:

The Money Question.

"The way to keep the gold standard out of danger is to keep it in the hands of those who put it out of danger. The year 1896 was no more a time for silence and hiding than 1861 was a time for cowardice and evasion. It was not only a political struggle, but on both sides it was a moral struggle. On both sides men who had for years trimmed and compromised threw aside expediency and spoke and acted on principles. Was Grover Cleveland silent then?

"Did he by his vote condone what he declared with his voice would be a crime? Were Senator Teller and the band of lifelong Republicans who marched out of the St. Louis convention silent then? Did they condone, by their votes, what their tongues proclaimed would be a crime? Were John M. Palmer and Gen. Buckner and the host of gold Democrats silent then?

Arraignment of Parker.

"Thousands of lifelong Republicans left their party; thousands of lifelong Democrats left their party. Among 80,000,000 of people there was a new alignment, hundreds of thousands changing sides; and all because of a principle which they believed would determine the future of the republic; yet at this hour, when men were destroying their political future for principle's sake; when brother turned against brother rather than forsake convictions, and even families were divided—at this supreme moral hour in the history of the American people, equaled in its fervor and purity only by that other moral awakening that ranged brother against brother on battlefields 40 years ago—in this hour, made heroic by devotion to beliefs on both sides—Alton B. Parker was silent, but he voted for free silver.

"Is that the kind of a man in whom gold Democrats can now find the leader of a cause? Is that the kind of a man in whom silver Democrats can now find the leader of a cause?"

Can't Mortgage the Future.

On the Philippines Senator Beveridge said:

"The opposition candidate admits we cannot leave the Philippines now even if it were desirable; admits that we cannot leave them until they are able to stand alone. Former Governor Taft, a Republican; present Governor Wright, a Democrat, and every man who has examined the situation on the ground, says that this will not be for decades.

"Mr. Parker admits that we cannot leave them now, but if we cannot leave them now, why promise what we will do after awhile? It is as bad for a nation to mortgage its future as it is for a man to mortgage his farm. Our children will be as wise and righteous as we are—and they will know more. Why not trust the future to them?

"Evading all issues except those which they declare are settled, the opposition is making Theodore Roosevelt the issue. We will save them the trouble—we ourselves will make Theodore Roosevelt an issue. And on that issue we do not defend; we attack. The election of Theodore Roosevelt means certainty in every policy, foreign and domestic; and stability is necessary to sound business.

"But, above all else, Roosevelt's election means that no power in this republic, however strong or rich; no organization, however numerous and determined, is too great for the sovereignty of the law; no citizen, however poor or humble, no interest, however small or weak, is too insignificant for the law's protection. And this is the largest issue of this campaign."

While Senator Beveridge was speaking it was found that a large number of people were unable to gain admission. In response to calls from the outside, Congressman Overstreet and several prominent Republicans addressed an overflow meeting in Courthouse park, opposite [illegible]

PARKER'S AIDS ARE SECRETIVE

Refuse to Give Out Information as to Conference of Leaders Yesterday.

GUFFEY VISITS THE JUDGE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

Judge Alton B. Parker today continued the conferences with Democratic leaders begun yesterday. His rooms on the eighth floor of the Hotel Seville were the objective point of a steady stream of callers who began coming even before the judge had taken breakfast. Among his callers was Pittsburgh's own Col. J. M. Guffey.

David B. Hill was the first caller, and he spent the greater part of an hour with Judge Parker. What passed between the judge and Mr. Hill is not known. No information was given out about their talk, except that it was upon matters connected with the campaign. It was said, however, that Mr. Hill, who is soon to start upon a stumping trip in West Virginia and Indiana, consulted the judge about the issues which he will make prominent in his discussions from the stump. Mr. Hill himself was more than usually secretive. He slipped into the hotel by way of the cafe in the basement and went out the same way.

Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany hall, spent an hour with Judge Parker this afternoon. Mr. Murphy arrived at the hotel while Judge Parker was taking luncheon. Upon the conclusion of the conference Mr. Murphy declined to say anything for publication, except that he had a "very pleasant chat with the judge."

Other callers upon Judge Parker were Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national committee; Representative Jefferson M. Levy and Samuel J. Tilden, a nephew of the late presidential candidate. Upon leaving Judge Parker Mr. Taggart was asked about the revival of the report that he is to leave eastern headquarters and go west for the balance of the campaign. Mr. Taggart denied the statements absolutely, and said that he was tired of hearing such a report.

NEARLY FIFTY MILLION DOLLARS LESS THIS YEAR

United States Steel Corporation for Last Nine Months Shows Tremendous Decrease.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—For the nine months of the calendar year ending Friday, the United States Steel Corporation has made approximately $50,000,000 net according to the Wall Street Journal of today.

This compares with $94,333,970 the first nine months of 1903 and $101,823,104 the first nine months of 1902. It is nearly 50 per cent below the high record of 1902 and over 40 per cent below the returns of 1903.

While the net returns for the nine months show so unfavorably compared with the figures of last year, conditions October 1 last year and this year are vastly different.

The fourth quarter of 1903 was the worst of the year. The outlook for future business was gloomy. The net returns for the month of December reached the low record of $3,293,139, nearly 300 per cent below the best month of the year.

SEPARATION OF RACES.

Is Fundamental Principle in Solving Negro Question Declares an Episcopal Bishop.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Before an audience that filled St. Thomas' Protestant Episcopal church, and in the presence of Booker T. Washington, tonight the Rev. Dr. Strange, bishop coadjutor-elect of the diocese of South Carolina, declared that the one set factor in any real and practical solution of the negro problem was the entire separation of the races in social, scholastic, religious and domestic affairs.

When Washington arose to speak, he virtually agreed with the bishop by saying the problem could not be settled by amalgamation or by deportation of the negroes, but by earnest sympathy and cooperation of the races, although his chief argument was for increased facilities for education, and for encouragement of his people in the south.

DUKE OF ORLEANS WILL TRY TO FIND THE POLE

CHRISTIANA, NORWAY, Sept. 28.—The duke of Orleans has asked permission of the government to hire the Arctic steamer Fram, in which Dr. Nansen made his voyage to the Arctic regions, for the purpose of an Arctic expedition in 1905. It is understood the admiralty will require that Capt. Otto Sverdrupt, the former commander of the Fram, shall command the vessel if the government agrees to the proposition of the duke. The plan of the expedition has been submitted for the approval of the Norwegian authorities.

GIVES AWAY A MILLION IN PUBLIC BEQUESTS

BOSTON, Sept. 28.—Public bequests, aggregating over $1,000,000, the largest being a gift of over $250,000 to the city of New Bedford, are contained in the will of the late Mrs. Sarah Potter of this city. To the Boston Medical library is bequeathed $150,000; to the kindergarten for the blind, at Jamaica Plains, $100,000, $100,000 and $50,000 to each of the following: Harvard university, Boston Home for Incurables, Hospital Cottages for Children at Baldwinville, Mass., Free Hospital for Women at Brooklyne and the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy.

MINE EXPLOSION KILLED TWO MEN

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 28.—Carrying a naked lamp into one of the old workings of Mount Jessup colliery, near Peckville, today, Paul Skovera caused an explosion of gas which caught a dozen men in the shaft, resulting in the death of himself and John Manoski, and the serious burning of nine others. Five of the latter are so badly injured that their recovery is doubtful.

JAPANESE SHIPS ARE REPORTED TO BE SUNK

LONDON, Sept. 28.—A dispatch from Vladivostock says, according to reports from Port Arthur, two Japanese torpedo boats and a Japanese steamer have been sunk by mines near Port Arthur during the last few days, and a Japanese cruiser of the Nitaka type was badly damaged.

SUCCESSOR TO H. D. W. ENGLISH

He Will Be Named for President by St. Andrew Convention.

ENGLISH PRIMATE TO SPEAK

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 28.—High dignitaries and laymen of the Protestant Episcopal church from this and other countries, are in this city to attend the 19th annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which begins tomorrow. The convention will be addressed by a most notable array of Episcopalian clergymen, including the heads of the church in England and America—the Rev. Dr. Randall Thomas Davidson, archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England, and the Rev. Dr. Samuel S. Tuttle, presiding bishop of the American church. Heading the laymen participating in the deliberations of the convention is James L. Houghtaling of Chicago, founder of the brotherhood.

The general council of the brotherhood held meetings today and tonight, at which the program for the convention was arranged. Reports of committees and the general officers were received and passed upon prior to their presentation to the convention.

The preliminary services will be opened in Holy Trinity church tomorrow by Bishop Tuttle and the business session of the convention will be called to order in the afternoon in Horticultural hall.

The most important session will be held on Friday, when a president to succeed H. W. D. English of Pittsburgh will be selected. The candidates for the office are Mahlon N. Kline of this city and Robert H. Gardiner of Gardiner, Me.

FIGHTING OVER DEAD GIRL'S GREAT FORTUNE

San Francisco Society Girls Will Be Asked to Give Testimony in Dolbeer Case.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Sept. 28.—Seven of San Francisco's most charming society girls are wanted for what they may individually know about the late Bertha Dolbeer, who was in Paris during the early summer season and whose demeanor while there is said to have denoted a disturbed mental condition. Upon returning to New York from Paris the unhappy young inheritor of the Dolbeer millions leaped to her death from a window in the Waldorf-Astoria.

Five-sevenths of the society maidens now in Paris, whose depositions are desired, are sisters—the Misses O'Connor, to-wit: Maude, Cecelia, Bella, Tiny and Ella. The remaining two-sevenths are also sisters—Misses Hazel and Genevieve King.

Yesterday Attorneys Hiram and Albert Johnson, on behalf of Adolph Schander, the chief contestant of Miss Dolbeer's will, filed with the county clerk a notice to the effect that in 10 days they will appear before Judge Coffey and ask that a commission be issued to take the testimony of certain witnesses now in Paris.

These witnesses are familiar with the actions of Miss Dolbeer and her companion. There are three of the personages in Paris empowered alike to take the depositions in question. They are John K. Gowdy, United States consul general; Allison Bowen, deputy consul general and Augustus E. Ingram, also a deputy consul general.

ACCEPT LONGER HOURS.

Chicago Unions Will Make No Trouble at Harvester Works.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Officers of the trade unions represented in the plants of the International Harvester Company after a long conference today with E. A. S. Clarke, manager of the Deering division, decided to take no action in opposition to the order of the company increasing the hours of work in its plants.

In the conference with Mr. Clarke the union men were informed that business conditions were such that it was necessary for the company to cut wages or lengthen the hours of labor. In view of this explanation the union leaders were unable to find a basis for complaint.

Death of Capt. William Markland.

Capt. William H. Markland, aged 57, a retired riverman, died at his home in Circle street, Sheraden, yesterday morning. He was born in Philadelphia and came to Pittsburgh about 25 years ago. He was a member of the Presbyterian church, Esplen, and was well known among local rivermen. He was captain of the Raymond Horner for years. He retired from steamboating four years ago. He is survived by his widow and four children: William M. Markland, Simpson M. Markland, Mrs. Belle Tyler and Miss Elizabeth Markland, all of Sheraden.

No Work Caused Suicide.

FINDLAY, O., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Charles Wood committed suicide tonight in the presence of his wife and six-year-old daughter, Laura, by shooting himself in the right temple with a 32-caliber revolver. The act was caused by despondency. Wood is a machinist and had been out of work for several weeks.

Lovelorn Youth's Suicide.

MEADVILLE, PA., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Earl Pendleton, aged 22 years, son of a prominent farmer near Venango borough, this morning shot himself through the head because his sweetheart's parents opposed his attentions to their daughter.

THREE RAILROAD WRECKS; FIVE PERSONS KILLED

Yesterday's List Also Includes Two Fatally and Fifteen Seriously Injured.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

EASTWOOD, ONT., Sept. 28.—An eastbound freight train on the Grand Trunk railway crashed into another freight train near here today. Engineers Kirkland and Heron, Conductor Falls and Brakeman Benedict were killed; Fireman Cameron was so badly scalded that his life is despaired of. An open switch is said to have been the cause of the accident.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 28.—A southbound passenger car on the Sciota Valley traction road struck a northbound work car this morning at Buckeye park, in Fairfield county, as a result of mistaken orders. Fifteen persons were seriously injured, an unknown boy fatally.

MERCER, PA., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—As the result of a wreck on the Bessemer railroad this morning at 6:30 o'clock at Pardee Engineer Frank O'Neil is dead. A heavy ore train broke in two and started down grade at a high rate of speed. It crashed into a freight train. O'Neil was caught between the tender and the engine and scalded by escaping steam.

O'Neil was married and lived in Greenville. Mrs. O'Neil was in Pittsburgh attending the funeral of her sister at the time.

EPIDEMIC OF TYPHOID.

New York's Health Department Alarmed Over Spread of the Disease in Gotham.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Greater New York is at present threatened with what may be the severest epidemic of typhoid fever in its history. The health department is thoroughly alarmed and is bending every effort toward checking the disease.

For the three weeks just ended the total number of cases reported at the health department was 441. The fatalities numbered 74, or a death rate of nearly 20 per cent. Last year, during the worst month—that of October—the largest number of cases in New York was 324 and the highest death rate at any time during the year was 13.4 per cent.

FARMER FOUND DYING ON TRACKS BY ENGINEER

George Laubing, aged 40, a farmer of Elfinwill station, was found lying unconscious on the tracks of the Pittsburgh & Western railroad near Elfinwill station by the engineer of a passenger train late last night. The train was stopped and the man was placed on board and taken to De Haven station, where he died shortly afterward. There are no marks of violence on the man's body and Dr. J. H. Price, who reported the case to the morgue, was unable to say what caused death. Laubing was married and had a family.

QUAKER CITY PREACHER CHAPLAIN FOR LIFE

Unusual Honor Is Paid by Locomotive Firemen to Candidate Elected to That Office.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

BUFFALO, N. Y., Sept. 28.—The ninth biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen adjourned today. The firemen chose Milwaukee as their meeting place for 1906. The election of officers was continued today with the following result:

Grand executive board, A. P. Kelly, A. S. Dillon, Thomas Burke, O. L. Kinsley and R. E. Quirk; grand trustees, W. L. French, A. H. Hawley, F. J. McNamara, J. J. Leahy of Philadelphia, was appointed grand chaplain of the order, his term of office to run as long as he lives. Grand Master Hannahan was granted a leave of absence on full pay for two months. No decision was reached regarding the proposition to change the headquarters of the brotherhood.

LOST—A TORPEDO.

Vessel Finding It Will Be Paid Reward of $250 if Not Blown Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Two torpedoes were lost last Friday from the United States marine boat Pike, who had been experimenting in San Pablo bay under the direction of Lieut. Macarthur. One has been recovered by Italian fishermen. The other is still at large and may be exploded by a passing vessell. It is charged with 200 pounds of gun cotton.

A reward of $250 is offered for its recovery. The only already recovered had lost its compressed air and was practically harmless.

KENTUCKY FEUDISTS SHOOT HUSBAND, WIFE AND CHILD

CLINTON, KY., Sept. 28.—While King Head, a farmer living four miles from here, was standing with his wife and child on their front porch tonight they were all shot from ambush. Head was fatally wounded, and the woman and child were seriously hurt.

WANTS STARS AND STRIPES TO WAVE IN AFRICA

RICHMOND, IND., Sept. 28.—Bishop Hartzell of Africa, in an address here, declared he hoped to see the time when the American flag should float over a portion of African territory, and that Africa can be divided by the great nations of the earth without war.

"Black Hand" in This State.

WILLIAMSPORT, PA., Sept. 28.—Charles Brownell, a prominent business man of this city and the owner of a large music house in Elmira, N. Y., today received a note directing him to place $50 at a spot near the fountain in Brandon park. The writer threatens the vengeance of the "Black Hand" in case Brownell refuses to obey his commands. Mr. Brownell notified the police and an effort will be made to capture the members of the society if any of them appear.

Hibernians Elect Officers.

GREENVILLE, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—At the biennial convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Mercer county today the following officers were elected: President, Luke Madden, Sharon; vice president, Thomas Bland, Sharpsville; financial secretary, D. B. Crowley, Greenville; recording secretary, William Fitzmaurice, Sharpsville; treasurer, William Callahan, Greenville.

French Lick Is Tabooed.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—An apparent settlement for the present of the question of the establishment of western Democratic headquarters was announced at the national committee rooms today. Members of the executive committee said no such headquarters would be established, and Chairman Taggart said that letters and telegrams received today made it appear that the establishment of such headquarters was unnecessary.

SCHWAB'S GREAT SHIP CONTRACT

Has Work for Several Years Ahead Assured for Reorganized Company.

SKELETONS OF TEN TAKE SHAPE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

In Wall street today was repeated the story that when Charles M. Schwab started for San Francisco 10 days ago he carried in his pocket the term of a contract with the Japanese government for construction of 14 battleships and cruisers. Only two men besides Mr. Schwab and the agents of the Japanese government are conversant with the details of the contract. These men are John W. Gates and Oliver Wren.

The ostensible purpose of Schwab's trip west was to attend the receiver's sale of the Union Iron works and complete arrangements for reorganization of the shipbuilding syndicate. Today's rumor gave significance to his remark that his visit to San Francisco had reference also to "a business matter of vast importance."

Several close conferences between Schwab and agents of the Japanese government now in this city were followed by the summoning of Dr. Marshall Ward, his brother-in-law, from Pittsburgh, a week prior to Mr. Schwab's starting west. When Schwab left Dr. Ward hurried back to Pittsburgh and thence to Bethlehem, the home of the great steel works of which Schwab is the head.

Lewis Nixon, former president of the United States Shipbuilding Company, has secured one of the largest government contracts on record. In his portmanteau as he stepped from the gangplank of a steamship on his return from Europe two weeks ago was a contract calling for the supply of 13 new torpedo boats for use by a leading European power.

From the day of his return his shipyards at Perth Amboy have been working day and night for the speedy fulfillment of the order. Already the skeletons of 10 torpedo boats, each about 100 feet long, have taken shape. A novel feature in the construction of these boats lies in the fact that for the first time steam will be abandoned, the boats being propelled by Standard gas engines.

Mr. Nixon declined to affirm or deny that he was building the torpedo boats for use by Russia.

SCHWAB AGENTS BOUGHT MUCH STEEL PREFERRED

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 28.—Charles M. Schwab and his party departed in a special train for the north and east this afternoon, but before leaving here he caused a flutter of excitement on the stock market by buying nearly $1,500,000 of the preferred stock of the United States Steel Corporation.

While the greatest possible secrecy is being maintained as to the identity of the purchaser of this big stock of steel preferred, it is the gossip of the local financial circles that the stock was bought for Schwab's account, wise ones pointing out that no San Francisco capitalist is sufficiently interested in steel stocks to make such big purchases.

This purchase was made through the local office of the New York firm of E. F. Hutton & Co. at an average of $72. Twenty thousand shares were purchased.

SETTLE MANY CONTESTS IN THE OLD BAY STATE

BOSTON, Sept. 28.—Having settled many contests in 22 cities and 2 towns of the state yesterday, the Republicans completed their primary elections today by holding caucuses in the other 11 cities and 318 towns. Of the senatorial contests, that in the southeastern section of the state, known as the Cape district, was the feature. With every town accounted for, the returns showed that none of the five candidates had succeeded in securing a sufficient number of delegates to secure the nomination.

Reform Association Meeting.

NEW CASTLE, PA., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The annual convention of the Lawrence branch of the National Reform association convened this evening at the Reformed Presbyterian church of this city. The Rev. J. S. Martin, the national secretary, presided, assisted by the Rev. M. Wilson Keith. An address was made by the Rev. Dr. J. D. Duncan of Mercer upon "What is Involved in Christian Citizenship." The convention remains in session until tomorrow evening.

May Get Her Liberty.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—"Nan" Patterson's prospects of getting out of the Tombs brightened today when District Attorney Jerome told her father, in answer to an inquiry, that he would accept for the woman's $20,000 bail a personal bond arranged by a surety company through an individual. Mr. Patterson believes he can get that.

TEMPEST RAISED OVER EMPEROR'S PUNCH BOWL

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—What is now known as the "punch bowl tempest" in which Capt. Jacob H. Hemphill figures as an important factor, has stirred the navy department to amusement and no little concern. Already an informal investigation has been quietly begun in the navy department.

Assistant Secretary Darling, acting as secretary in the absence of Mr. Morton, and Rear Admiral Converse, chief of the bureau of navigation, both said today that they know of no record in the navy department permitting Capt. Hemphill to accept a gift from the German emperor. Both officials, however, were loath to believe that Capt. Hemphill had committed any irregularity, and it was suggested that perhaps he had simply taken the emperor's gift ashore temporarily to exhibit to his friends.

Lieutenant Commander A. A. Ackerman, who was executive officer of the Kearsarge at the time of the Kiel regatta and was on board the ship when the emperor presented the punch bowl, said tonight, although he was not present when the actual presentation took place, it was always his understanding that it was a personal gift. Commander Ackerman, however, is quite positive that there was no inscription on the punch bowl at the time it was presented by the emperor. He also says that he never heard Capt. Hemphill's claim to the punch bowl questioned on board.

SAVED KAISER'S HONOR.

Herr Meyer Pleads Guilty and Averts Great Scandal.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—(Special Cable.)—The sensational trial of the banker, Fritz Meyer, who failed for many millions some time ago, and which, it has been thought, would result in implicating a number of very prominent officials and army officers, came to an end suddenly today by the banker pleading guilty and receiving a sentence of 13 months' imprisonment in state prison.

This is being taken as an indication that the authorities feared the exposure which would be made in case of a prolonged trial, and that inducements had been held out to the accused to confess to save the reputation of people, some of whom, it was whispered, were related even to the imperial family.

FIRED AT A RABBI BUT KILLED HELPER

HARTFORD, CONN., Sept. 28.—Louis Mazentar, aged 28, of this city, was shot to death today at the slaughter house at Wilsons station, three miles north of this city. He went in company with a rabbi to butcher beef. While there the rabbi had an altercation with an unknown hunter who carried a gun. Hot words followed, and the hunter fired at the rabbi, but struck Mazentar.

ASSASSIN'S FATHER WILL BE TRIED FOR TREASON

HELSINGFORS, FINLAND, Sept. 28.—Former Senator Schumann, father of Eugene Schumann, the assassin of Governor General Bobrikoff, who was arrested July 2, on suspicion of having had knowledge of his son's crime, has been taken to Abo, the former capital of Finland, where the high court will hear the charge of treason against him.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Allegheny Preparatory school reopens September 21, 1904. The Headmaster will be at the school office after September 8, between 9 a. m. and 1 p. m., to meet and classify pupils, to talk with intending patrons and to show those who may wish to see them the building and equipment. The school provides instruction for boys and girls from the first year of school life till they are ready for any American college or university. The work is done by 15 expert teachers.

A well equipped gymnasium and a large playground, under the exclusive control of the school, offer ample opportunity for sports and games. These are individual corrective work under trained directors, give the physical development of both boys and girls its due emphasis. Oral expression, singing, reading aloud, public speaking and debates have their proper place in the curriculum.

Owing to its non-commercial character, the entire income of the school can be applied in making the school better. The building has just been redecorated throughout.

For our new circular and any further information, address the Headmaster, Wilmot R. Jones, 900 Lincoln Avenue, Allegheny, Pa.

RAMAPO NOW WANTS NINETY MORE MILLIONS FROM NEW YORK

Unless Gotham Pays Tribute to That Figure the Giant Octopus Will Cut Off Its Available Future Water Supply.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Ramapo again has New York at its mercy and threatens the city water supply unless its demands for millions of tribute are acceded to.

The Ramapo is alive and is stronger than ever was brought to public attention through a report made to Mayor McClellan today a plan for the increase of the city's water supply.

At the instance of G. W. Birdsall, chief engineer of the commission of water supply, gas and electricity, John T. Oakley, head of the department has suggested that the city acquire the rights of the Ramapo Company in the Catskill region, and construct a new source of water supply at an estimated cost of $90,000,000.

Options upon all the water rights in the vicinity described in the report were obtained by the Ramapo Company five years ago, before it brought forward its proposed $20,000,000 contract with the city.

Despite the fact that this contract was killed by a popular uprising such as has been rarely equalled in this city, the company has gone on extending its rights until it is in a position to exact an enormous tribute from the city.

SYRIANS SHOW NATIONAL DANCE

Novel and Picturesque Performance at Fall Festival in Aid of St. Anne's Church.

SOME ORIENTAL FEATURES

One of the most novel entertainments ever given for the benefit of a church was the fall festival held last night to aid the St. Anne Syrian Roman Catholic church. The management was American, but the Syrians furnished the novelties.

The strangest thing of all was the prominent part taken by a young Turk, a real Mohammedan, Ali Hassan Abou by name, of 22 Straight street, Damascus. If all the Turks were as friendly to the Christians as Hassan is, there would be no Turkish problem, was the remark made last night.

Trinity hall in Center avenue, above Fulton street, was crowded, the gallery and half the lower floor being devoted to progressive euchre players and the other half to dancers, while Hassan gyrated on the stage, brandishing the nearest imitation of a Turkish cimetar he could find, and beating on a sauce pan lid for a shield. Hassan's partner in the dance, which represented a combat, was Michael Nasor, a Christian Syrian, but as the two men are personal friends they did not allow their religious prejudices to infuse any fatal fire into their mimic duel.

Hassan was clothed in regulation Turkish costume, white hand-woven silk "sheroal," trousers, and a white, tight-fitting waistcoat, "sedriah," beautifully embroidered in conventional oriental designs. Nasor had no Christian Syrian costume, so he had to content himself with a priest's gown. In deference to his Christian audience Hassan sank to the ground at the end of the dance as if overcome by the prowess of his opponent.

Nasor and Hassan also gave a rendition of the popular dance of the Syrians, danced by Mohammedan and Christians alike. The dancers revolved in a series of concentric circles, snapping their fingers and waiving a white cloth, while their feet performed intricate steps. A clarionet and a drum performed Turkish music the while. The Turk also took part in the dance of men and women together, the men and women clasping hands and, standing alongside one another, turning in circles. The waltzers on the floor thought the Syrian dance very tame, while the clergy present said it was pretty and modest.

The festival was managed by ladies of the Epiphany and St. Brigid churches, the general committee being composed of Mrs. Margaret Crowley, Mrs. Mary Hearne, Mrs. Robert Crawford, Mrs. Margaret Ryan and Mrs. Leiter. They were assisted by a number of young women of both congregations. The euchre prizes were handsome and the refreshments served were good. During the evening Miss Stella Crowley and Miss Fitzsimmons sang. Georgios el Zegeyr was the master of ceremonies on the stage. Father Kaftawy, the pastor, said the receipts of the evening would help to reduce the debt on the church materially.

"PITTSBURGH IS A GODLY CITY," DECLARES THE MAYOR

Says Sabbath Observance Association Should Aid Police in Securing Evidence Against Speakeasies.

"This is the most godly city in the country on Sunday," emphatically declared Mayor Hays yesterday, in discussing the work of the Allegheny County Sabbath Observance association. The mayor went on record as heartily indorsing the recent statements of Col. Samuel Harden Church when the latter expressed himself as opposed to the methods of the association. "The association would be doing a better work," concluded the mayor, "if the members would aid the police in securing evidence against the speakeasies which sell on Sunday."

Following the report of the visit of the Rev. S. E. Nicholson, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, to Boies Penrose in an effort to gain his support for a local option bill to be presented at the next session of the legislature, comes the announcement that a campaign favoring the bill will be agitated at the Allegheny county union ministerial meeting to be held here on October 17. The bill provides that whenever a majority of voters in a municipality request a vote on local option the vote shall be taken, and while not forcing local option makes it allowable.

Attorney John Marron, who represents the Allegheny County Anti-Saloon league in the case against Frederick Tschume, announced yesterday that at the conclusion of the Tschume case efforts will be made to have the wholesale license of James L. Riley, 3706 Forbes street, revoked. Riley is charged by the league with selling from wagons, on Sunday and from his warehouse in the rear of 254 Atwood street, which place is said to have no license.

District Attorney Robert E. Stewart denies that he is not making a thorough investigation of the Allegheny city "graft" charges. He states that he has been accumulating evidence rapidly, but does not care to place the cases in jeopardy by making any public announcement or serving warrants at this time.

WITNESSES WERE SPIRITED AWAY, THE POLICE ALLEGE

When Joseph Cushagos was called for a hearing on a charge of assault and battery with intent to commit a felony at the Lawrenceville police station yesterday the prosecutors, Mr. and Mrs. Stanislaus Alivitska, of 50 Nineteenth street, could not be found. When the police investigated their absence it was found that men representing themselves as officers had gone to the Alivitska house and taken both witnesses away early in the morning. Cushagos, it is alleged, attempted to assault Mrs. Alivitska at her home on September 20. The hearing was postponed.

Today's Influx of Excursionists.

As the days of the Exposition draw to a close the Thursday excursions become heavier. Throughout the Exposition season we always endeavor to present something attractive for excursionists while in town, so they may have the same advantage that residents of Pittsburg possess. Everybody enjoys a special sale in this store, and for today there are two which appeal strongly to women. The women of the various excursions should look in upon the departments that have these specials.

Women's $3.00 and $3.50 Autumn Shoes, $2.10 a Pr.

This is one of the very best underprice sales we ever conducted. It is a sale that is opportune.

Women have the opportunity of buying splendid $3.00 and $3.50 Shoes, possessing as much grace as anyone could wish, made over lasts that insure a perfect fit, and all they will have to pay will be $2.10. Sizes from 3 to 7, inclusive—widths A to D, inclusive.

Five hundred pairs of these shoes will be ready this morning, all newly fashioned expressly for this Autumn. There are six different styles.

Patent and kid leathers, patent and kid tips, button or lace. Every shoe has a welted sole, is of a good weight, and is perfect in every particular.

Women's $1.25 Mannish Cape Gloves, 85c a Pair.

The Cape Glove for street wear is the glove par excellence.

These Cape Gloves come in all street shades—English red, brown, mode and many different tints of tan. There are all sizes. They are not seconds. There is not a blemish on any glove. There are two styles—one a great pearl button, the other one-clasp. Either decidedly mannish. All are finished with Paris point embroidery.

To use a superiative, this is an unparalleled offer. There has never been, so far as we can recall, any similar offer in this city. The lot is not a small one—we never deal in handfuls. At the regular Glove counter, main floor, East.

Special Offer in Women's Vests.

In this case we mean the knitted undergarments. We have a fair-sized collection of the finer sort which we will sell today for considerably less than regular prices.

The lot is made up of fine lisle, silk-mixed and all-silk vests—most of them exclusive patterns. By way of example—

85c Vests will sell for 50c.
$1.25 Vests will sell for 85c.
$1.50 and $1.75 Vests will sell for $1.00.
$2.00 and $2.25 Vests will sell for $1.50.
$6.00 Vests will sell for $3.50.

Heavy-Weight Stockings for Women and Children.

Our line of heavyweight hosiery is most complete. There are different grades of cashmere hose for the woman who likes wool, extra weight cottons for the woman or child who cannot wear wool, lisle stockings, fleece lined stockings, plain cotton stockings and the various ribbed. And in almost every case you will find our prices lower than others. In some cases but a few cents, in others 25c and 50c a pair lower than the same grades cost elsewhere.

Children's heavy black winter weight cotton Hose, corduroy and one-one ribbed, 25c, 35c, 50c a pair.
Children's fleece-lined cotton Hose, one-one ribbed and flat, 25c a pair.
Children's black cashmere Hose, 25c, 35c, 50c and up to $1.05, according to size.
Women's black woolen Hose, oxford mixtures and black, 25c a pair.
Women's plain Balbriggan Hose, German, English and Irish makes, of our own importation, regular and outsizes, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1.00 and up to $4.50 a pair.
Women's black maco cotton fleece-lined Hose, all black or with white feet or soles. 35c and 50c a pair.
Women's black silk fleece-lined Hose, $1.50 a pair.
Women's heavy winter weight cotton Hose, all black, or with white feet or soles. 25c, 35c, 75c a pair.
Women's blue polka dot hose, cotton or lisle, 75c a pair.

Autumn Tones Reflected in New Ribbons.

Even the ribbons whisper of Autumn. Our foreign made ribbons are all of our own importation and handsome new styles are arriving almost daily. Warm rich tints, browns, yellows, orange are shown in profusion. There are browns which melt into the new shade coq de roche and yellows which shade to brown for all the world like varicolored autumn leaves. Among the other new shades are chameleon, grenade, jena, pleuna and Austerlitz.

Such weaves as Warp Prints, Persian designs and daintiest Dresden effects. 4½ and up to 11 inches in width, 65c and up to $3.50 a yard.

In this Ribbon Department we will make you a sash or girdle from ribbon of your own selection for a very trifling cost.

6½-inch French Taffeta, 5¾-inch Satin Taffeta, 5½-inch Metallic Mousseline, in white and colors, worth all of 50c a yard, especially priced at 35c.

5¾-inch Satin Taffeta, 5¼-inch Mousseline and 5¼-inch Plain Taffeta—in black, white, pink, blue, cardinal, navy, brown, nile, maize, and so on, all worth 40c a yard, at the very special price of 25c a yard.

School Hats for Girls.

Any number of new styles in girls' School Hats. Round Hats with streamers for the little girls, plain, but very stylish, at 75c, $1.00, $1.25 and up to $3.50. These are shown in all the leading Fall shades.

Handsome Hats for Misses of felt or cloth with silk stitching, trimmed with bands, buckles, quills, wings or pompons, a very extensive selection at $1.00, $1.50, $1.75, $2.00, $3.00, $3.50 and up to $5.00. In this collection are pure white hats as well as colors that will harmonize beautifully with the Autumn suitings.

Untrimmed Hats—
A great many styles in untrimmed felt Hats at 50c each and up to $1.50. Flats, round hats and the latest face shapes. All colors.

Trimmings—
Breasts at 50c and up to $1.00 each.
Pompons at 25c, 45c and 75c each.
Quills at 10c and up to 50c each.

Beautiful Mohair Braids for Half Regular Prices.

Every woman knows what a splendid dress or coat trimming, fine, lustrous mohair braid makes. And braid trimming is a very fashionable garniture today. It would seem that regardless of what other ornamentation is used on a suit or dress a touch of braid also finds place.

Those we offer at half price are shown in light and dark brown, national and navy blue, red, gray and black. In width from ½ to 3¼ inches. Not a thing the matter with them even if the price is halved.

½-inch width at 3c, instead of 6c a yard.
¾-inch width at 4c, instead of 8c a yard.
⅞-inch width at 6c, instead of 12½c a yard.
1-inch width at 8c, instead of 15c a yard.
1¼-inch width at 10c, instead of 18c a yard.
1½-inch width at 12c, instead of 22c a yard.
2-inch width at 14c, instead of 25c a yard.
2¼-inch width at 15c, instead of 30c a yard.

Albums for Kodak Prints.

We have just received a fine lot of new Kodak Albums from Europe which added to our already large collection gives us the finest assortment to be found in the two cities. Flexible and stiff leaves, sewed binding or interchangeable leaf. A small folder at 15c, and from that up to a handsome morocco bound album, 14x17 inches in size, at $8.00.

We have at all times a complete line of Eastman's Kodaks from the little Brownie at $1.00 to the fine large Kodak at $75.00. We carry Eastman's because they are the best.

All sorts of supplies for amateur photographers here for the smallest of prices.

Blazed Trail Stories.

In Our Book Nook at $1.08.

A charming collection of cleverly told short stories of the rugged woodsmen of our Northwest forests. In these tales from the lumber camp the author, Stewart Edward White, shows the same wide knowledge of the life of the lumber jack as in his former great book, "The Blazed Trail."

The very breath of the pines sweeps through its pages.

New Tamise--New Albatross--Either 45c a Yard.

Will be shown today in all the new street and evening shades. Either material admirable for street, evening or reception wear.

Especially appropriate for children's dresses.

Gov. Pennypacker is an executive alive to his duties. When there was a threat of lynching in Cambria county the other day he did not wait to be appealed to for help, but at once notified the sheriff of the county that he could depend upon the state for all needed assistance to prevent a violation of the laws. That is the right spirit. Pennsylvania is free from the stain of lynching, and the governor will not permit it to be disgraced as long as he can do aught to help it. A little of this same regard for state honor and integrity would be of great benefit to many other states. Sheriff Lenhart of Cambria is duly grateful to the governor for his prompt and timely assurance which put him in position the better to perform his own duty.

Controlier Larkin is off to Philadelphia to inspect the filtration plant there. Before leaving he gave out an interview in which he said he was not opposed to filtration and that since the people favored sand filtration he was not opposed to that either, but he was opposed to "the concentration of a very large sum of money where it will be available for some purpose independent of filtration." Since he holds such views it will be gratifying to the controller if the court raises the embargo laid upon the payment of the filtration bureau engaged in preparing plans upon which contracts can be let. It is an obvious proposition that the longer the work of preparing the plans is delayed the longer will the filtration fund lie idle.

The letter published in the organ of the Western Miners Federation, purporting to have been written by President Roosevelt in reply to representations from President Michael Donnelly of the Meat Cutters' union, has acted as a political boomerang. The letter sharply criticised the behavior of labor unions and discussed their claims and pretensions with sarcastic vigor. It was published as an exemplification of the attitude of President Roosevelt toward labor interests, and was at once denounced by him as a forgery. It turns out that the original was published in the New York Evening Post as a letter which the president "might have written with advantage to himself and the country." Now, it so happens that the Evening Post is a devout adherent of Judge Parker and is fervently advocating his election. So far as its influence extends the sentiments expressed in the letter will be those which will animate the administration of Judge Parker should he be elected.

The trouble into which 'Squire Phelps of Stockbridge, Mass., has gotten himself by fining Hugh Gurney of the British embassy is likely to be trivial compared to that in which Mr. Gurney will be apt to find himself. The machinery of the state department and of the state government is in motion over the affair, and 'Squire Phelps is learning things which he frankly admits he did not know before about international law, but the more the matter is agitated the worse it is likely to be for Mr. Gurney in the end. He will probably have occasion to wish most fervently that he had not pleaded his diplomatic privilege and had paid his fine quietly. The British government is rather strongly disposed to cultivate the good will of the United States, and Mr. Gurney's exploit in claiming diplomatic immunity for automobile scorching will not be favorably regarded. While he is not punishable under the laws of Massachusetts, he is under the laws of his own country, to whom his case will be referred. The comment of the British press indicates that there is trouble coming and he will be in it.

An instance of the manner in which the appropriations for the public service have been and are being juggled appears in the proposition to transfer from the fire fund a total of more than $12,000 to two other bureaus. This is in addition to the transfer from the same fund of the $15,000 needed last summer for the expense of the bond election. It is matter of common knowledge that many bureaus are short of funds, and it is not unusual in such cases to get needed money from other funds. But in this case there are unusual features. When the appropriations ordinance was under consideration the director of the department of public safety represented the fire bureau as insufficiently provided for. The allowance was increased by $25,000. When vacations were suggested for the firemen they were refused on the ground that there was no money to employ extra men. Then $15,000 went to meet the expense of the bond election, and now $12,400 are asked for the bureau of health and the general office. Either the needs of the fire bureau were overestimated in the beginning or that bureau is now being deprived of funds that may be essential for the protection of property. It is a case of deception or of bungling.

Fragments of news from Korea show that notwithstanding the heavy drain upon their resources by the siege of Port Arthur and the campaign against the Russian main army in Manchuria the Japanese are putting another army in northeastern Korea, with Vladivostok as its objective. It has not been regarded by military experts as probable that the Japanese would continue to follow the Russians into the interior of Manchuria after expelling them from the region between Mongolia and Korea. After the fall of Mukden the Japanese offensive may be suddenly transferred from Manchuria to the Amur province, of which Vladivostok is the port. It is known that the Japanese are carefully fortifying the strategic points in the portion of Manchuria from which they have driven the Russians, and if the latter expect to reconquer the positions they have lost they have plenty of work cut out for them. Meanwhile the Japanese may be rolling up the lines of Russian power about Vladivostok, the loss of which would leave Russia without any position upon the Pacific.

Reform In Expenditures.

A large part of Judge Parker's letter of acceptance is devoted to the subject of reform in governmental expenditures. This is indisputably a subject of serious public concern, for there is not at present a proper control over expenditures nor a proper relation between income and outgo. There is no budget worthy of the name, but the government has to go upon the principle of maintaining a big surplus to protect the treasury from the chance of serious deficits.

We did not have to wait for Judge Parker to tell us these things. They have been the frequent burden of complaint in congress and of admonitions from the president. Speaker Cannon, while chairman of the appropriations committee, frankly admitted that "the appropriations are, in my judgment, in excess of the legitimate demands of the public service." He put the blame in the proper quarter—defective organization of the congressional system, particularly the unlimited authority of the senate. As to this Mr. Cannon remarked that "the general deficiency bill, in recent sessions, as it leaves the house, providing for legitimate appropriations for the support of the government, is transformed into a mere vehicle whersin the senate loads up and carries through every sort of claim that should have no consideration by either branch of congress except as independent bills reported from competent committees."

The only real point of interest in Judge Parker's comments is his suggestion as to the remedy, as the evil is well known. The only suggestion he has to make is that the Democratic party should be put in control. How that would correct the system he does not attempt to explain. We know that Senator Tillman once forced through a claim which was denounced upon the floor of the house as fraudulent by threatening to hold up the appropriation bills unless his demands were conceded. For the sake of public interests the house submitted to this undisguised blackmail. How would the election of Senator Tillman's party put an end to such practices? They rest upon opportunities of minority rule approved by the Democratic platform, which commends the defeat of Secretary Taft's Philippine bills "held up by the opposition of the Democratic senators in the last session." It is this hold-up game which destroys party responsibility and is the root of governamental extravagance.

Not only is the Democratic party addicted to the system which breeds extravagance, but the creation of that system was its work. Prior to the Democratic victory of 1884 something in the nature of a regular budget existed, from the fact that the ways and means committee controlled all revenue bills and the appropriations committee controlled all appropriations. Mr. Randall, as head of the appropriations committee, was too firm an economist to suit his party, and to get rid of his control the rules were changed so that eight of the regular appropriation bills were turned over to other committees. Mr. Randall told the house at the time, "You will enter upon a path of extravagance you cannot foresee the length of or the depth of, until we find the treasury of the country bankrupt." It turned out exactly as Mr. Randall predicted. The distribution of the appropriations made just so many additional points upon which local interests could mass their demands. All sense of proportion between income and expenditure was lost, and in 10 years the treasury was bankrupt and a Democratic president had to sell government bonds to the amount of $262,000,000 to keep the government going.

Something will have to be done to subject congress to a proper responsibility in this matter and force it to amend its ways. If Judge Parker has any useful suggestion to offer in that direction it would be a worthy act of reparation for the injury which his party has inflicted upon public interests in this respect heretofore. But all that he proposes is that the party which did this mischief in the past shall be given an opportunity to do more mischief.

Will Not Get Excited.

The Washington Post, which looks at affairs from the Democratic point of view but does its own thinking, sums up the effect of Judge Parker's letter by saying that "it has not stirred up a great excitement or created an intense and all-pervading interest." It concludes that "the canvass will continue to be comparatively apathetic."

The Chicago Inter Ocean, looking at affairs from the Republican point of view, notes the same state of apparent apathy. It says that the campaign managers are puzzled and troubled by it, as never before was so little popular interest shown in a presidential election. "Except where local questions arise to arouse interest the people appear to care little whether any campaign is made. The torchlight processions, flambeau clubs, campaign legions and other spectacular accessories of former presidential contests are altogether absent."

Now, in view of the fact that one great party is assuring the people that the republic is trembling on the brink of despotism and that this election may afford the last opportunity for the people to choose between constitutionalism and imperialism, this apathy is rather a significant circumstance. Just such an appearance of apathy appears in the face of a jury which has made up its mind and is simply waiting for a chance to bring in its verdict, but meanwhile has to sit through showers of oratory. It will be remembered that in Vermont and Maine before the recent elections there was this same appearance of apathy, but there was no slackness upon election day.

We believe that the true explanation of the peculiarities of the present campaign is that there is little party enthusiasm, but there is a deep conviction that in Theodore Roosevelt the people have an able and courageous representative so devoted to their interests that he does not hesitate to bump the politicians when they stand in the way. The people have made up their minds to uphold him, and they will give him the largest popular majority ever received by a presidential candidate.

Disorder In the State.

Something must be done for the better protection of citizens of Pennsylvania. The recent epidemic of assaults upon women must have shocked every right-thinking man. The continuous depredations of highwaymen are notorious. Obviously the population contains a larger percentage of lawless characters than formerly. This element must be taught to respect or at least to fear the law. Unless measures are taken to this end there will inevitably be a weakening of the respect and confidence of the majority in the effectiveness of legal procedure. There could hardly be any greater calamity than this befall this grand old commonwealth, which has been a bulwark of law and order among the states. The crime of lynching is almost unknown here and no excuse for it should be permitted to grow upon failure of legal protection for good citizens.

In the south lynching was resorted to for the protection of women. It is now common in revenge for other offenses. It has had no effect in restraint of crime. In fact, its influence has been in the opposite direction. Most deplorable conditions have grown out of a natural human instinct, the defense of the sanctity of womanhood. The mistake of the south was in not devising and applying a legal remedy. The same mistake should not be made in this state. We must recognize altered conditions and provide to meet them. Proper penalties and the means of enforcing them will prevent the temptation to mob vengeance and inspire that respect for orderly processes that is the chief strength of popular government.

First of all, we need a state constabulary, untrammeled by local divisions and free from purely political influence. A force organized on lines simtiar to the mounted police of Canada would be of inestimable service. The effectiveness of that organization is best illustrated by the fact that the gold development in the northwest territory has been remarkably free from the disorders which have come to be expected in mining camps far from the centers of civilization. There has been no wild frontier in that section. It is impossible that every portion of our vast domain should be patrolled as are our city streets. But that is not essential for the reasonable security of suburban and rural populations. With a policeman on every corner there are opportunities for the thug. Yet the knowledge that there is an officer in the next block frequently deters the thug from operating. It is the efficiency of the force, in greater degree than its numerical strength, that prevents crime. The knowledge that a force of expert criminal hunters exists is a powerful deterrent. The criminal is a moral coward.

This matter should be among the first to be considered by the legislature at its next session. A bill for the creation of a state constabulary ought to be introduced at the opening and pressed to passage. That is the first step to better protection of person and property for which purpose government exists. Beyond this there may be careful revision of law and court practice to secure expedition in the trial and adjudication of causes. Delay in the administration of justice is only less mischievous than failure to secure justice. It is time for prospective members of the general assembly to give these matters their earnest attention.

Talked of in Gotham

By FRANK A. PARKER.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—On next Friday, when the board of estimates meets, Controller Grout will ask for an appropriation of $750,000 to secure more playgrounds in the crowded sections of Manhattan and Brooklyn. Borough President Ahren and Mayor McClelian are already on record as favoring the expenditure, and it is not believed the board of estimates will long quibble over the call for funds. A walk through the downtown section of the city will convince anyone of the necessity and even the utility of these playgrounds. Today I walked from Herald square to Park place, passing through Greenwich village, and then taking Hudson street for the balance of the promenade. There are several small parks known as city playgrounds along this route, and one could easily tell the neighborhoods in which they are located long before seeing the green trees or hearing the laughter of children. Where there is no playground close by the children would be seen running through the streets, threading in and out among wagons and cars and sometimes missing death only by a hair's breadth, but where there was a city playground within a couple of squares few children were to be found except on the sidewalks, going to or from the little park. In Hudson street, near Dominick, is one of the prettiest spots in the city, probably more beautiful because of the squalid surroundings. This breathing spot is like an oasis in a desert. In the center is a large pool of water 15 feet below the street level, surrounded by high green banks, and with a row of benches along the pool. In the rear of the park are swings and other amusements for the youngsters. Strangers cannot but stop and look in upon the youngsters who seem as happy as though a Sunday school picnic were in progress with only five minutes till refreshments.

Even Bare Spots Bring Happiness.

The Hudson street playground is one of the most beautiful in the city. But there are others that bring almost as much joy to the hearts of the youngsters, even though they do not furnish half the advantages. In Seventh avenue, at the corner of Thirty-seventh street, for instance, there is a bit of bare ground surrounded by a board fence, where the children of the neighborhood gather these bright days. It has one advantage—there are no "keep off the grass" signs, because there is no grass. The boys play ball or cat, while the girls have the swings. But some day this playground will be no more, because it is on private grounds and when the Pennsylvania station is finished there will be a demand for all the building sites along Seventh avenue for many squares each way.

Will Change the Avenue's Appearance.

The building of the Pennsylvania station, by the way will make a great difference in Seventh avenue. Today it is the most cosmopolitan street in New York city. Ordinarily the foreign population lives in colonies, but along Seventh avenue every nationality is represented. At one point there are five business signs and there are five countries represented. The first one bears a good old English name, then comes a German, next a Greek, then an Italian and finally on the corner there is an Irish name above the door of the most pretentious establishment of them all. Not alone on the signs, but in the people you see on the street, is Seventh avenue the "boulevarde du peuple," as it has been often called, and it is worth anyone's while to take a stroll from Forty-second to Fourteenth street. But within three years much of this will be changed, all because the Pennsylvania Railroad Company chose that section for its great station. Property values have greatly increased and modern structures will take place of the rows of two and three-storied brick buildings that now line the street. It will then become one of the finest thoroughfares in New York.

Cannot Be Made to Sing.

The Manhattan club has at last convinced Judge Parker that a reception in his honor would be a very pleasant—and perhaps profitable—affair. It will be held next Wednesday and there will be several prominent speakers, including the Democratic candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, but the judge is not to raise his voice. He may get up like the bashful orator of the occasion at a country fair, and remark that "it is good to be among you," but that will be his limit. It begins to look as though the judge is one of those men who cannot think upon their feet. Anyhow, he refuses to try.

Great Aid to the Housewife.

There is an institution in this city which will be of interest to every housewife in the country. It is called the Women's Domestic guild, and its business is to furnish servants to its members. None outside of the membership can take advantage of the guild's service, but it has thousands of members and is self-supporting. Today the guild announced a new departure, the furnishing of servants by the day or by the hour, when there happens one of those important occasions when the regular household staff proves insufficient. This will prove a great scheme for these women who, on ordinary occasions, have but one servant but who need two or three, or even more, to escape the burdens of an evening's entertainment of friends or who are suddenly swooped down upon by unexpected guests.

Just Like My Old Kentucky Home.

The carrying of concealed weapons is becoming an alarming feature of life in Gotham, so much so that both the coroner and the commissioner of police are taking a very serious view of the situation. The coroner reports that seven homicides recently were directly the result of this practice, and the commissioner promises to revise his list of pistol permits. More than 300 of these permits have so far been cancelled and the work is still proceeding. Incidentally, when the police make it safe for unarmed men to travel the streets at night, one will not care so much to feel the weight of his pistol in his pocket as he passes a dark place in the street.

Nips of New York News.

The Quiet Observer

By ERASMUS WILSON.

Were you ever in love, really?

Some may think this a most silly sort of question, and so it may be for them, but there are others, of whom you may be one.

In all probability every man and woman who lives, or has ever lived, have thought themselves in love at least once in their lives.

But were they, or did they only think they were?

This is the real question, and the one that each must answer for himself, for the success or failure of marriage depends on it.

Those who really love, and are really loved, are the happiest people on earth, while those who only think they love and imagine they are loved are doomed to live more or less miserable through all their days.

Love is a spirit, or at least of the spirit of goodness, therefore to be entreated, persuaded and bound, but it may not be bound by any ties controlled by man. He may entreat and persuade, but a higher power must bind.

Loving is a spiritual phenomenon and not a physical condition.

Right here is where great and maybe fatal mistakes are often made.

Love is spiritual, therefore perpetual, while fascination is of the flesh, therefore unstable and not to be trusted. Fascination is as consuming fire that is not quenched until the fuel on which it feeds has been consumed, which fuel is physical beauty and sprightliness of manner. As these depart so goes fascination.

Love burns not, nor does it destroy, but is hopeful, long suffering, indulging.

* * * * *

Do you recall when or how you came to fall in love?

What a lot, an endless lot of charming love stories could be written if there was some way by which competent writers could see and read the lives of good people during the love-making period.

But it never will be done, it never can be done. These scenes are too sacred to be witnessed by curious eyes. Only two hearts can know, and they don't have to be told, nor to read the stories.

Love comes, it is not fetched. Therefore you may as well make up your mind to wait and then wait patiently for its coming.

But it is not all in waiting. You must hold your heart in readiness to receive it when it comes, as the good housewife holds her best room in readiness for the dear friend whom she expects and who may come at any time.

Many a girl has waited long and more or less impatiently for the coming of this much desired guest, but having neglected to prepare her heart for its reception it passed on leaving her sad and sorrowful, maybe to sigh her life away.

The heart must be prepared for the abode of love, for it will not abide in a place where there is hate, or folly, or insincerity. Purity, sweetness and gentleness constitute its congenial environment. Without these it becomes restive and sooner or later departs.

Respect and admiration are the foundation and the firmament of love and as these abide so abideth love.

While you may be fascinated by one for whom you have neither great respect nor admiration, you cannot love such an one. Nor can you learn to love one such, no matter how you may strive to do so.

* * * * *

If ladies be but young and fair,
They have the gift to know it; and in his brain,
Which is as dry as the remainder biscuit
After a voyage, he hath strange places cramm'd
With strange observations, the which he vents
In mangled forms. —Shakespeare.

The bard must have had a bachelor in mind. In fact he was writing of one who had boasted that he was proof against the wiles and smiles of fair ladies. And like the true bard he wrote truly; that is, he made the bachelor submit to the gentle power, and by his conduct confess that he was love-sick through and through.

Bachelors are an odd sort, but for most part good fellows, and not hard to capture by those who are patient and tactful. They will not be driven, but may be led, and even bound, by a thread.

As a rule bachelors are fond of fair ladies, but for some reason they delight in being offish, a bit stubborn, and more or less boastful of their proof against Cupid's darts.

Youngish bachelors are fair game and usually worth the effort needed to capture them, but when they have grown old and are firmly set in their ways the chances are against their making good husbands, because the ways of a confirmed bachelor are hardly the ways of a model husband or family man.

* * * * *

Some bachelors there are who appear to be like unto the one portrayed by Beaumont and Fletcher in their once famous comedy, "The Widow," who, being pursued by the widow in question, exclaimed:

"The fit's upon me now!
Come quickly, gentle lady;
The fit's upon me now."

These are the moody sort who would marry one day and the next they would not. The admirers of these must catch them when the fit is on, but when it passes off, what then?

It is better, perhaps, to wait on a man until he capitulates, which he will in good time if love has tackled him good and proper.

It seems to be the order of nature for the man to propose, and that without solicitation from the woman. He it is that makes love and woos, and she has only to assent to his advances.

But when won and bound in matrimony their relative attitudes change, she becoming the lover and the wooer. His quest having ceased he becomes the defender and supporter. He no longer dresses and poses and sings serenades to please and flatter her, but dons his fighting garb and sallies forth in his manly strength to gather the fairest and fattest of the land for her delectation.

Love has no rules to be learned by note and applied like those laid down in school books. Nor can its coming be foretold by signs, nor by long distance observations. It comes when least expected and from most unlikely quarters.

* * * * *

Shall I, wasting in despair,
Die because a woman's fair?
Or make pale my cheeks with care,
'Cause another's rosy are?
Be she fairer than the day,
Or the flowery meads in May,
If she be not so to me,
What care I how fair she be?
—George Wither.

Sure enough, what's the use worrying and fretting yourself because a woman is fair, or because a man is strong, if their strength or beauty does not appeal to you.

No man loves a woman simply because she is fair, nor do women love men merely because they are strong.

Then why do they love?

Ah, that's the question, and who is there to answer to the satisfaction of fair lady or strong man?

And why do not all strong men love all fair ladies?

An answer to this is found in Beaumont and Fletcher's comedy, "Love's Cure":

"What's one man's poison, signor,
Is another man's meat and drink."

Democracy's Limited Convictions.

Mr. Meredith's ideas about limited matrimony do not seem to be popular, but limited political convictions are "all the rage" now among Democratic politicians. Unlike Mr. Meredith, who would limit the matrimonial connection to 10 years, renewable at the will of the parties, the Democratic plan is to limit convictions to two presidential campaigns, at the end of which an entirely new set of convictions and opinions may be professed, to the great delight of the party and the applause of the "independent" press.—New York Tribune.

The Stroller

The car was empty inside, the last belated passenger choosing to stand on the platform with the conductor. The latter slid the door together with a vicious bang that told of his humor.

With a view to the opening of conversation the passenger, who was a regular one, queried, "You seem to be in a bad humor tonight. Anything wrong?"

"Anything wrong? Everything's wrong," he answered in tones of exasperation. "I intend to ask for my pay in the morning; I've stood it as long as I can."

He was a young fellow of good countenance and honest, intelligent eyes, and, at a sign of interest and sympathy, continued, "Why on earth do people, knowing that street cars are run for gain, like any other business, hate so to pay fare? Men who will cheerfully put up $2 or $5 to pay for a row of drinks, and women who willingly spend a week's pay shopping, will beat a railroad or a street car company every time they get a chance; but the worst of it is that this dislike seems to center itself upon the man whose duty it is to collect the fares. I'll just give you a history of the last three days. The day before yesterday a man got on the car and handed me a transfer that was out of date. I, of course, refused to let him ride and at last was compelled to tell him that he must either pay or get off. He began to swear, and to end the row and protect women passengers from the annoyance of his language I stopped the car and ordered him, once for all, to quit swearing and pay his fare. He refused and after a struggle the motorman and I between us got him off. Now who do you suppose was the first to attack me for performing a plain—and mighty unpleasant—duty? Why the woman! 'I was a great cowardly brute—couldn't anyone see that the poor man was intoxicated and didn't know what he was doing? I should have reasoned with him, not bulldozed him—she had a great mind to report me to the company for rowdyism.' The three men in the car chimed in; they agreed that I was a ruffian, talked it over in tones loud enough for me to hear, and finally one, a chunky mechanic, offered to lick me with one hand tied behind him if I would agree to fight him at the end of the line.

"Then there's the kind who don't refuse to pay if you ask them, but never, under any circumstances, offer fare if you don't. Women are great offenders of this kind. They'll get on when the car's pretty full, for instance, go well forward, get hold of the strap, raise a folded newspaper to the level of their faces, fix their eyes on the exposed column and pretend to read; it's astonishing how quickly they succeed in becoming absorbed; they carry the nickel pinched under the thumb that holds the paper. When you come along and say, 'Fare, please,' they awake with a start and expose the coin as if they had been waiting for you all the time. This is, of course, only one of many devices to beat the company. This kind of people argue that it is the conductor's duty to get the fares and that if he overlooks them they are not morally bound to pay. They might just as well argue that they don't owe rent if the collector fails to call. They have no more right to leave the car owing fare than they have to take French leave without squaring for their monthly rent.

"There's another kind, the kind that pay, but pay as if they regarded you much in the light of a highwayman holding them up. They are no doubt in favor of three-cent fares and seem to think that two cents out of every five goes into the conductor's pocket. Yesterday a bunch of this sort got on the car and one of the number paid for the party. He afterward got it into his head—or pretended to—that he had given me 10 cents too much. I had counted the sum carefully and knew that it was correct, and politely assured him so. That started the talk among them; each one told a story of some experience he had had with some impudent or dishonest conductor; the 'short change racket,' 'knocking down' fares, ruffianly treatment, 'pass,' all of these came in for discussion, and the statement that we were a set of 'yaps' who couldn't get any other honest work to do and that no self-respecting man would do it went without contradiction. If there had been a single voice raised in conductor's defense I wouldn't have felt so sore, but the whole car seemed to listen with approval."

"The first time a Pittsburgh barber jabbed me in the eye with a huge bath sponge I thought it was time to prepare to defend myself," said a traveling man at the Hotel Henry last evening.

"I supposed he was coming to me with 10-ounce gloves until I happened to glance over to my neighbor who seemed to enjoy the evolutions that his barber was performing around his head. Then I took my cue from him and submitted to the 'punishment.' In the first four or five encounters I could not resist the impulse to duck some of the irresistible rushes, but now I come right back in a manner which must impress the barber with my bravery. I really enjoy the game now and am often tempted to wait over night to get shaved in Pittsburgh.

"Although I am becoming accustomed to the physical training incident to the operation, I have never been able to understand why the Pittsburgh barber bangs you on the head rest while he powders your face. You have no doubt noticed how, after your face receives its Turkish bath rub, the head rest is run up until your feet are pulled off the foot rest. Then Mr. Barber places his hand upon your brow and jerks your head back until your neck cracks. In other cities the barber can dry your face without this hanging process and I do not see why it cannot be done in Pittsburgh."

"But there are worse barbers than those in Pittsburgh. In Washington, D. C., and some of the other southern cities they insist upon plastering your face the second time with a heavy coat of strong lather. This is a most painful operation. After a barber has gone over my face once it is as tender as the ball of your eye. When a Washington barber proceeded to apply another coat of lather I rebelled and ever after that I watched his movements. Whenever a barber starts for the shaving mug the second time my hands are up in protest.

"But did you ever go through a barber shop equipped with all the latest inventions? The machinery in one of these shops makes a noise like a planing mill. From the compressed air they blow into your face to dry it. Of course these shops are equipped with electric massaging and vibration machines. The latest improvement, I believe, is a shoe blacking and polishing machine. This is a sort of turning table upon which you sit while brushes revolving at a high rate of speed reach up and polish your shoes. A boy who operates the machine applies the paste when you take your seat and when you swing once around the circle your shoes are 'clean.'

"Yet with all their inventions no class of barbers turn out a better finished product than the Pittsburgh artists."

IT IS TO SMILE.

"Nothing like presence of mind in the face of great danger," grimly remarked the man who had fallen from the excursion boat and had been rescued with little difficulty. "I'll bet there were more than 10 life-preservers hurled at me by as many idiots, but, thank heaven, I had sense enough not to grab any of them!"—Puck.

CTORS SCORE HEALTH BOARD

pers Read Before State Medical Society Not Favorable to the State Officers.

DELEGATES ARE ENTERTAINED

"Insofar as any good to the state is accomplished, it would be a benefit to abolish the state board of health," announced Dr. Bishop of York, Pa., before the members of the Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania, in session in Carnegie Music hall yesterday morning.

He referred to the board as the "tramp bureau of health," and declared the board accomplished little other than to alarm the citizens by their bulletins and their movements through the state. He contended there are sufficient laws upon the statute books to preserve sanitary conditions if they are enforced.

Dr. S. P. Heilman of Heilman Dale read a paper on "Lax Sanitation" giving statistics showing the per capita cost inflicted upon taxpayers by laxity in sanitary safeguards. He urged legislation empowering the state board of health to appoint health officers in every borough and district and held that the act empowering school boards to act as health officers be abolished. Among those reading papers were the following:

J. C. O'Day, Oil City; William M. Davis, Pittsburgh; Samuel Wolf, Philadelphia; John R. McCartney, Fredonia; Herman B. Allyn, Philadelphia; J. M. McCall, Wilkinsburg; George W. Guthrie, Wilkesbarre; C. B. Longnecker, Philadelphia; David Reisman, Philadelphia; Judson Daland, Philadelphia; William M. Beech, Pittsburgh; Lewis H. Adler, Philadelphia; Henry D. Thirty-five carriages were required for the drive yesterday afternoon through Schenley and Highland parks, tendered the wives of the visiting physicians. At the Country club the ladies were the guests of the wives of the local physicians, who gave them an informal reception and tea. The first floor of the handsome new club house was open to the ladies during the afternoon as well as the piazzas. Tea was served in the dining room, which was decorated with red carnations, the candles in the candelabra having pretty scarlet shades. In the receiving group were Dr. Elizabeth L. Martin, chairman of the women's sub-committee on entertainment; Mrs. William B. Ulrich, the wife of the president of the State Medical society; Mrs. Samuel Ayres, Mrs. William S. Foster, Mrs. Alfred Pettit, Mrs. Karl Emmerling, Mrs. DeWitt B. Nettleton, Mrs. Edward Hanna Small, Miss Alice Tindle, Miss Florence Murdock and Miss Katherine Murdock.

Last evening the Apollo club gave a concert in Carnegie music hall in honor of the visiting physicians and their wives. This morning several special street cars will carry the women through Allegheny and over the Perrysville route.

The physicians were tendered a smoker last evening by the West Penn Medical college at the Union club. The convention concludes today, when the election and inauguration of new officers will be held and further papers will be read.

EXPLOSION OF GAS CAUSES INJURIES TO CHILDREN

Put Burning Matches Into a Manhole at South Thirteenth and Bingham Streets.

The explosion of gas in a manhole at South Thirteenth and Bingham streets last night resulted in three children being painfully burned. The injured are:

WILLIAM ATWELL aged 12, of No. 1221 Sarah street; legs burned; taken home.

EFFIE TIMMINS, aged 10, of No. 1325 Carson street; burned about legs; taken home.

The children, with several companions, discovered an odor of gas leaking from the manhole. Several of the lads secured matches and lighting one of them stuck it through one of the holes in the iron covering of the hole. The explosion followed. The children were taken to the office of a nearby physician where their injuries were dressed. None is seriously hurt.

FRENCH WORKMEN TO MAKE A TOUR OF LABOR CIRCLES

A party of 12 French workingmen will arrive in Pittsburgh this morning from New York city. They are on a tour of American cities and will investigate labor matters here today and tomorrow. They have been sent to America by the French minister of commerce and the party will be in charge of Prof. Albert Metin. They will have headquarters at the Colonial hotel and will be shown about the city by Edward A. Woods, who received notice of the party's coming yesterday.

PUNISHED FOR TRYING TO PAWN DEAD MOTHER'S RING

For attempting to pawn his dead mother's ring for $1 E. J. Cooper was ordered to pay $10 and costs or serve 10 days in jail by Magisrate Stewart yesterday. Cooper and his friend, S. Ramsey, were arrested in a pawn shop in Wylie avenue Tuesday afternoon. At the hearing Cooper said he wanted the money so that he and his friend could play pool. The ring is worth about $25, and this aroused the pawnbrokers' suspicion and he called a policeman, who arrested the men.

Spoke on Negro Education.

"My People Are Destroyed for Lack of Knowledge," was the subject of the address of the Rev. Dr. D. S. Bentley before the county convention of the "Our Brethren" union, in the Euclid Avenue African Methodist Episcopal church last night. The Rev. Dr. J. W. Gazaway spoke along the same lines. Both speakers made pleas for the advancement of the negro along educational lines.

Keiser Brought to Jail.

Harvey Keiser, who was arrested by United States Secret Service Officer John E. Washer, at his home in the mountains of Somerset county, was brought to jail last night. He is charged with having in his possession and making counterfeit money. Keiser had in his pocket a badge and credentials of the Pinkerton detective agency made out to Harvey Kerper. He said he was the man meant and that a mistake in the name was made by the agency.

Diplomas for Graduates.

Commencement exercises were held at the Bedford sub-district school in Bingham street, near South Tenth, yesterday afternoon. Thirteen graduates received diplomas from William H. Ziefel, secretary of the school board. Prof. R. H. Holbrook delivered the invocation, and Prof. E. Rynearson and Supt. Samuel Andrews the addresses. The Rev. Dr. E. L. Eaton delivered the address to the graduates.

Glassport Strikers Sent to Jail.

James Daley, one of the striking foundrymen of Glassport, was committed to jail last night on a bail piece. Daley was under bond to appear in court on a charge of pointing firearms and his bondsman, Stewart Johnston, surrendered him.

CHANGE IN NEW CASTLE'S OFFICIAL LIFE

Clifford W. Fenton.

Charles C. Duff.

City Clerk Charles C. Duff of New Castle has tendered his resignation to accept the position of head bookkeeper of the National bank of Lawrence county, one of the wealthiest banks in Lawrence county.

Attorney Clifford W. Fenton, select councilman from the Sixth ward of New Castle, was elected to the position vacated by Mr. Duff. The outgoing official and his successor are both 35 years of age. A peculiar coincidence is thy are both Democrats, although New Castle is overwhelmingly Republican.

WHO IS GOING TO BUILD THE PLANT?

Allegheny Councils Give Contract to Bookkeeper in Employ of Councilman.

NONE SEEM TO KNOW SECRET

For the first time since last June Allegheny select council met yesterday. A feature of the proceedings was the final passage of an ordinance granting to C. F. Knapp the contract to rebuild the city light plant at a cost of $83,472. This action gives promise of some complications. Mr. Knapp is a bookkeeper in the employ of Langenheim, Cochran & Company, general contractors. Charles F. Mohney, common councilman from the Tenth ward, is a member of this firm. Under the provisions of the charter ordinance no member of councils is allowed to enter into any contract, either directly or indirectly, with the city. The penalty for violation of this section of the charter act is impeachment and dismissal from from councils.

Mr. Mohney is out of the city, but C. W. Cochran, one of the firm, said last night that his company was not going to do the work. When asked what facilities Mr. Knapp, his bookkeeper, had for building a light plant, Mr. Cochran said he knew nothing about it. He denies having any knowledge of Mr. Knapp's intention.

Knapp's bid was $2,222 above the estimate made by Director McIlvain prior to the advertisement for bids on the work. McIlvain in his subsequent ordinance admitted he had made a mistake in figuring the estimate, and asked that the contract be given to Mr. Knapp so the work of rebuilding the light plant might start at once. The plant was partially destroyed by fire several weeks ago.

An ordinance negatived by the committee on public works, providing for a slight change in location of the four corners of Sandusky and Ohio streets, was ordered printed for councils and will be acted upon at the next regular meeting.

Another dispute followed the presentation for final passage of a measure fixing the grade and manner of construction of the sidewalks on McClure avenue. This street has caused more trouble in councils in the past year than any other that is being improved. Common council has passed a measure placing the sidewalks somewhat more than two feet above the grade of the street. A recess of 20 minutes was taken that the members should have an opportunity to consult with a number of property owners who were in the lobby. After some more wrangling no action was taken and the measure was shelved until the next regular meeting.

The ordinances authorizing the regrading and repaving of Ohio street from Sherman avenue to the Fort Wayne tracks, and the extension of the Western avenue sewer to the harbor line, were passed finally. A large number of ordinances providing for the construction of sewers were passed finally. Favorable action was taken finally on measures providing for a tank on Greentree hill and a shelter-house in Riverview park.

Messrs. Leckey, Enston and Robinson were appointed a committee to confer with a similar body from the common branch to choose a site on Monument hill upon which to erect an armory.

Morris Einstein introduced an ordinance instructing the committee on appropriations to include in the estimates for next year $15,000 for the Allegheny General hospital and $3,000 each for the St. John's General and the Presbyterian hospitals. The measure was referred to the finance committee.

MADE NO THREAT.

President Shaffer of Amalgamated Denies Report of Steel Corporation Defying Union.

Two rumors of a scary nature were set in circulation yesterday regarding the strike of the Carnegie Steel Company's Youngstown hoop mill employes. One was that President Shaffer of the Amalgamated association had been flatly notified by President Dinkey of the Carnegie Steel Company that the United States Steel Corporation proposes to put the Amalgamated association out of all its plants. This was denied absolutely by President Shaffer last evening. No such statement had ever been made to him, he said.

Another rumor was that the strike problem had been lifted from the hands of President Dinkey to those of the New York officials of the Steel Corporation itself on account of the alleged threat of the Amalgamated to embroil other plants of the corporation in the trouble. This, also, Mr. Shaffer said was not true, because there had been no threat of the kind. The trouble is local and must be maintained so under the association's by-laws.

AUTOMOBILE NOT A SIGN OF RICHES

Wife of a Local Contractor Says All Who Own a Toot Wagon Are Not Wealthy.

TROUBLE CAUSED BY BRAKE

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

GREENWICH, CONN., Sept. 28.—By the smashing of the brake on her auto car on Greenwich avenue this morning, Mrs. James C. Stewart, wife of a Pittsburgh, New York and Baltimore contractor, residing in the Smith cottage on Otter Rock drive, Bellehaven, lost control of the machine and it bumped into the hind wheel of Philip Finnegan's runabout. The tire of the wheel came off and rolled down the avenue from in front of the town building, where the accident occurred, to the bank building. Alongside it came the automobile, dodging carriages skilfully, and finally coming to a stop at the foot of the grade in front of Constable Frank Mitchell's store. The chauffeur jumped out and proceeded to mend the brake.

In the meantime, Finnegan, jumping out of his carriage, concluded the automobilists were trying to get away, and jumped upon a trolley car and pursued them. With Constable Mitchell he went to Mrs. Stewart and told her he expected pay for the damage done.

"It was an accident to our brake which caused it," said she.

"But that doesn't help me," said Finnegan, "and I want pay for the hire of another carriage while mine is being fixed."

This was refused and when Harris had fixed the brake and was about to start up the machine the officer jumped in.

"What does this mean?" demanded the lady.

"That someone is going to get arrested for running this machine recklessly," said the officer. "Mr. Finnegan is a poor man and offers to let you off by paying the damage done to him. Your brake didn't break until your machine hit him, and the one who drove it must be locked up or give bond."

Then Mrs. Stewart wilted, and with the officer went toward the repair shop and agreed to pay for the damage done, but held off on the hiring of a new rig. She was accordingly taken before Judge Barnes to give the necessary bond. She again remonstrated, saying the wagon was only worth 5 cents and she was not to blame. Judge Barnes gave her some legal advice and she sent Harris to inquire about hiring a rig. He reported the expense would be $1. The incident closed by the demands being agreed to.

"Is Mr. Finnegan a poor man?" Mrs. Stewart asked the judge before agreeing to pay the $1 extra.

"Yes, depending upon his daily wages," said the judge.

"Well, I'm poor, too," she replied. "My husband has to work, else we would not have an automobile. Everybody thinks because one owns an automobile they are rich and have everything they want and money to give away. I don't have everything I want. Hasn't he got another wagon he can use?"

The reply was in the negative.

Auto Racers Will Pick Up Girls in Contest That Is Strictly New.

There will be a premium on the art of picking up girls in an automobile at the Brunot island races September 30 and October 1. "The Lovers' Cup race" is the name of a contest in which the exhibitions will be given. Girl friends of the automobilists will be stationed around the track and the driver that succeeds in picking up the maiden while going at highest speed stands the best chance of winning the trophy. The auto driver will not know where his friend is stationed and will have to exercise skill in finding her. The girls must be as skillful as possible in getting into the machines. Hundreds of society women are already anxious to enter the event, which is an innovation in automobile racing. There will be as many entries in the race as the track will accommodate.

This announcement was made following the meeting of the Pittsburgh Automobile club in Baum street, East End, last evening. All other arrangement was completed for the meet. Another feature will be a standing start race in which the drivers will alight from their machines start their engines, crawl back in and get away, after the revolver is fired.

There will be about 75 entries during the two days and about eight events each day. The races will start promptly at 2 o'clock. Excursion boats will leave the Monongahela wharf for the island in plenty of time for the first event. Tickets will be placed on sale today at A. G. Pratt's, 507 Wood street; at Raubitschek's cigar store, Smithfield and Sixth avenue, and at the Hotel Wolfendale, Allegheny. Barney Oldfield with his green dragon will be one of the star attractions. W. N. Murray and George Turner of this city will be on hand with their racers.

STAMPED ON CZAR'S FACE.

Vandals at World's Fair Offer Indignities to Portrait of Emperor Nicholas.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28. When the Russian exhibit in the varied industries building at the world's fair was opened today it was discovered several valuable oil paintings of Emperor Nicholas had been torn from the wall and mutilated. One of these, a handsome and valuable panel done in colored silk, had been subjected to the greatest indignity. There were marks showing that the features of the emperor had been stamped upon.

The vandalism was reported to the exposition authorities who have engaged private detectives to work on the case.

FLINT WORKERS REFUSE TO ACCEPT NEW SCALE

The members of the American Flint Glass Workers' union have rejected the scale made up by the representatives of the union with the manufacturers for the shade and globe trade, and another conference of the two sides is being held. This was the only condition of the settlement rejected by the workers. The workmen want an increase of 10 per cent in wages and also the readoption of the old number of moves. The manufacturers want to increase the moves to make the output unlimited and enable them to compete with cheaper ware of foreign trade.

SHE RACED AGAINST DEATH AND HAD TO SUFFER ARREST

Well-Known New York Heiress Was Dragged to Police Station for Speeding Her Automobile to Her Dying Mother.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—In a wild race against death in her automobile this afternoon Miss Eloise L. Breese, one of New York's richest heiresses, was arrested on the charge of violating the speed limit ordinance.

"Let me go," shrieked the young woman, as the policeman overtook the machine at One Hundred and Tenth street. "I have just come in from Tuxedo at break-neck speed; that I could reach the bedside of my dying mother. I have to go only as far as 35 East Twenty-second street."

The policeman ignored the young woman's pathetic plea. Placing her under arrest, along with her chauffeur, Paul Miller, he boarded the automobile and was driven to the East One Hundred and Fourth street station. From there the fair prisoner, on the verge of hysterics, was taken to Harlem court, where, after she furnished bail, she was released.

Then she again sprang into the machine. Chauffeur Miller threw on the power and the automobile sped away to the Breese home, where Miss Breese's mother lay at the point of death. Miss Breese is one of the most popular members of society at Tuxedo. She is a sister of James L. Breese and is worth more than $1,000,000 in her own name.

FAIRBANKS STIRS UP ALL MONTANA

Discourses at Helena on President's Policy Toward Evil-Doers.

HIS HIGH IDEALS OF DUTY

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

HELENA, MONT., Sept. 28.—In his principal speech here tonight Senator Fairbanks discussed at some length the charges of corruption made against the Republican party, extending and making more specific his remarks at Great Falls. He refrained carefully from mention of Judge Parker's name, but it was understood by all that the speech was inspired by the utterances of the Democratic candidate on this subject in his letter of acceptance. Mr. Fairbanks said:

"President Roosevelt has enforced the laws. He has driven corruption out of public places. We know in private experience that in every community there are evildoers, but they are comparatively few. The one who will betray public trust is the exception. He insinuates himself into private employment, into corporate employment, into the public employment. Theodore Roosevelt knew that, and he determined that, so far as lay in his power, the betrayer of the general interest should be whipped out of place and power. He set to work a corps of inspectors in the great postoffice department, one of the greatest pieces of official mechanism in the world. Thousands are employed in it; yes, tens of thousands. Is it at all to be wondered at that now and then among this vast army there should be one who should forget his duty to his government and go wrong? The president undertook to find out whether someone was betraying his trust and he made discoveries—not many, but a few, comparatively. Who were the offenders? Some Republicans, some Democrats. What did he do? Did he undertake to conceal the result of the investigation from the knowledge of men? No. He brought the evildoers to the bar of justice. The department of justice prosecuted them, and in many cases the guilty are wearing the stripes of their guilt.

"Those who talk of corruption in the administration must bear in mind, if they be just, that there is no man living with a higher conception of civic duty, with a more exalted ideal of official responsibility than Theodore Roosevelt, president of the United States. He has no sympathy for wrongdoers, because he is a rightdoer himself. Clean himself, he wishes all men in public service to be likewise clean."

There were two meetings here tonight, one being held at the Auditorium and the other at the Helena theater. Senator Fairbanks and Senator Dolliver spoke at both meetings, Fairbanks opening at the Auditorium and closing at the theater, while Dolliver reversed this order.

The meetings were attended by full houses, and they were preceded by a brilliant street demonstration prepared by the Roosevelt and Fairbanks Republican league.

During the day there was less speaking than usual. At the Boston and Montana smelter at Great Falls a few remarks were made to an assembly of workmen from the smelter. There was a brief stop at Cascade, where Senator Fairbanks spoke to a number of school children.

GROVER TOO DELICATE FOR ACTIVE SERVICE

Will Take No Part in Parker's Campaign at Present, but His Heart's With Him.

BUZZARDS BAY, MASS., Sept. 28.—According to his own words, former President Cleveland views the political situation in New York state with satisfaction. While he is keenly interested in the progress of the fight for the election of Judge Parker, whose candidacy he indorsed before the St. Louis convention, the condition of Mr. Cleveland's health will not permit him, at least at present, to think of becoming an active participant in the contest.

"Shall you make any speeches during the campaign?" he was asked.

"Nothing of the sort is in my mind," Mr. Cleveland replied, shaking his head.

PRESIDENT SENDS GREETINGS.

Wires Polish Congress in Session Here That He Appreciates Kind Wishes.

President Roosevelt, through Secretary Loeb, yesterday acknowledged a telegram sent him by the Polish Catholic congress now in session here, offering him their best wishes, by the following telegram:

White House, Sept. 28.

The Rev. M. Barabaz, Chairman Polish Roman Catholic Congress:

The president acknowledges your telegram and greatly appreciates your kind wishes. He extends his hearty greetings to your congress. WILLIAM LOEB, JR., Secretary to the President.

The congress spent the day hearing reports from committees. A proposition to establish grade schools between the elementary schools and colleges, met with favorable recommendation. Today's session will close the congress and a reception will be held in Carnegie music hall tonight.

CROWD THREATENED ITALIAN.

Man Accused of Assaulting Driver With Shovel Faces Angered Citizens.

Ugly threats were made by a large crowd on Eleanor street yesterday afternoon where Peter S. Moore, an Italian street laborer, was under arrest on suspicion of having assaulted Lodis Gross, a driver for the Rogers Sand Company, earlier in the day.

Gross, who lives at No. 2514 Josephine street, was struck over the head with a shovel and lies at his home unconscious and in a critical condition. Moore disappeared following the assault and was later arrested in Soho and taken to Eleanor street for identification, where his presence almost caused a riot. He was held to await the result of Gross' injuries.

HAVE PORTAGE MURDER SUSPECT CONFINED IN JAIL

JOHNSTOWN, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—There is confined in jail at Ebensburg one Joseph McKeel, charged with complicity in the Portage murders by highwaymen, who secured nearly $4,000 in money which Paymaster Campbell had received to pay off the miners. The information against McKeel has been made before Alderman Reese of this city. The officers, however, cannot serve the warrant until McKeel completes a nine months' sentence on a charge of false pretense, preferred about the time the county was stirred up by the Portage holdup.

CORTELYOU BACK AT HEADQUARTERS

SAYS WISCONSIN IS SURE SOLID

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Herald Building, Herald Square. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

George B. Cortelyou, chairman of the national committee, returned today from Washington, where he has been in consultation with President Roosevelt about the situation in New York state. Mr. Cortelyou had nothing to say for publication, but it was said at headquarters that he was not seriously alarmed at the situation in this state. He has every confidence in Gov. Odell's ability as a political manager, and believes Lieut. Gov. Higgins is a very strong candidate for the governorship.

One of the notable callers at Republican national headquarters today was Senator Russell A. Alger of Michigan. Mr. Alger assured the national committee that the party was in good shape in the west and that Roosevelt would swing the usual Republican majority in Michigan.

It was expected that Gov. Odell and Mr. Cortelyou would have a conference this afternoon, but the governor has not yet returned from Newburg, where he went yesterday to prepare a speech that he will deliver on New York day at the St. Louis exposition, October 4.

Gov. Odell's scheduled conference with Mr. Cortelyou is said to be for the purpose of discussing the contribution which the national committee will make to the state campaign fund. It is reported that the governor had asked Mr. Cortelyou for a very large sum, amounting to hundreds of thousands, and that it was on this business that Mr. Cortelyou went to Washington to see the president.

THE DEATH ROLL

Culberson Orr.

Culberson Orr, aged 84, one of the oldest and most influential citizens of Clarion county, died on Tuesday on his farm near Limestone, Pa. He was born March 15, 1820, and resided his entire life at the old homestead. He is survived by his second wife and six children: Edward A. Orr, a prominent business man of Dawson City, Alaska; Mrs. Margaret Hill of Blaine, Wash.; Charles F. and James H. at home; Prof. Robert S. Orrr, principal of Ninth Ward school, Allegheny, and Prof. William C. Orr, professor of mathematics in the Tacoma high school, Tacoma, Wash. The grandfather of the deceased was Capt. Robert Orr who settled at Hannahstown about 1760 and a Revolutionary soldier. His remains will be buried in the Greenville cemetery tomorrow.

Mrs. Oliver Anderson Buried.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Mrs. Mary Anderson, wife of Oliver Anderson at the family home, 37 Dawson avenue, Bellevue, at 3 p. m. yesterday. Mr. Anderson was formerly a member of the firm of Anderson, Porter & Boyd, iron founders of River avenue, Allegheny. Mrs. Anderson is survived by her husband, two daughters, Mrs. A. B. Longdon of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. D. M. Sloan of Bellevue, and a son, Howard Anderson of Allegheny.

Arthur Kirk Buried.

Funeral services over the remains of Arthur Kirk were held at his late home in South Canal street, Sharpsburg, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. J. A. Duff of Avalon conducted the services, which were attended by more than 200 friends of Mr. Kirk. The pallbearers were J. I. Buchanan, Willis F. McCook, William Falconer, the Hon. J. W. Over, J. D. Shaw and James Scott. Interment was made in Allegheny cemetery.

Dr. I. P. Klingensmith.

Dr. I. P. Klingensmith, a prominent resident of Blairsville, died Tuesday night, aged 64 years. He has been surgeon for the Pennsylvania railroad since 1876 and has held various offices in county, state and national conventions. He was a thirty-second degree Mason, an Odd Fellow and a member of the Knights of Pythias. He is survived by his widow and five children.

Obituary Notes.

Mrs. David Mullen, aged 64 years, wife of David Mullen, a conductor on the Pennsylvania railroad, died at her home in Indiana last night.

Jesse Bennett, one of the most prominent farmers of Westmoreland county, is dead at his home near West Fairfield. He was 60 years old. George Bennett of Pittsburgh, is a son.

GIVES FAREWELL DINNER.

P. K. Stephenson Bids Farewell to His Friends in Pittsburgh.

P. K. Stephenson, assistant secretary of the Pittsburgh Builders' Exchange league, was given a farewell dinner by friends at the Monongahela club last night. Mr. Stephenson has accepted the position of secretary of the Builders Trades and Employers' association of New York city, and will go to New York tomorrow to assume the duties of his new position.

The dinner was attended by intimate friends of Mr. Stephenson, who has since connecting himself with local exchange become popular for his good fellowship. At the dinner last night his pleasant humor kept his friends in the best of spirits and, while his departure from this city is greatly regretted, members of the local exchange look to him to bring the local and New York exchanges into more friendly relations. Mr. Stephenson will entertain friends at the Monongahela club at lunch today.

BURGLAR WAS STUCK IN PILE OF BUCKWHEAT

KITTANNING, PA., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The Central hotel, East Brady, was entered by burglars this morning. They were discovered by citizens, who gave chase. Two of the men escaped, but the third, Othe Nepler of Kittanning, took refuge in a warehouse. A large quantity of buckwheat was piled on the floor and Nepler dove into the hulls with such force that his entire person, except his feet, was hidden. After the posse recovered from laughing at his plight, they caught him by the heels, pulled him out and took him to the lockup.

MURDERER PRINKKI WILL HANG THIS MORNING

GREENSBURG, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Jacob Prinkki tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock will pay the death penalty for the murder of William C. Kelsey at East Charlerol. He sits in his cell without speaking to his jailers or his death watch. Last night he played cards until after midnight, and then went to sleep.

Don't miss the "Russian versus Japanese" concert by the Boys' orchestra at the Exposition tonight. Great sensation.

ELEVEN MEN WANT WYMAN'S SHOES

Candidates for Mayoralty Are Growing Plentiful on the North Side.

BIG RALLY TOMORROW NIGHT

Although it is 17 months until the people of Allegheny vote for the successor of Mayor James G. Wyman, there are now 11 men who may be classed as candidates for that office. The latest aspirant is Robert K. Cochran, common councilman from the Sixth ward.

Every man who is talking of seeking the mayoralty says that he will go into the Republican primaries. The other candidates are Charles F. Kirschier, John Francies, John R. Murphy, John A. Fairman, H. K. Tyler, Director E. J. McIlvain of the department of public works, Director Henry Hunneshagen of the department of charities, Director Thomas B. Scandrett of the department of public safety, William A. Ford, common councilman from the Second ward, and John W. Robinson, select councilman from the Fourth ward.

Plans for the big Republican rally in Old City hall tomorrow night are about complete. Lee S. Smith is to preside at the gathering. The speakers are to be Congressman W. P. Hepburn of Iowa, Adjt.-Gen. Thomas J. Stewart, Attorney General Hampton L. Carson and James F. Burke, the nominee for congress in the district in which the meeting is being held. The Americus and Tariff clubs will escort the speakers from Hotel Duquesne to Old City hall. The speaking will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

The Democratic national committee is alarmed at the information received by it that most of the commercial travelers will vote for Roosevelt and Fairbanks. The mails from New York to Pittsburgh were burdened yesterday with appeals to traveling men residing here to work and vote for Alton B. Parker. The basis of the appeal is the statement that "The trusts are widening the gap between rich and poor, and wealth is every year falling into fewer and fewer hands."

Just how this condition is to be bettered by Parker the letter fails to state. It is written on the Democratic national committee letterhead and prominent among the names at the top of the page are those of August Belmont, John R. McLean and James M. Guffey. Neither of them has acquired a reputation as a "trust buster."

The appeal winds up with a suggestion for commercial travelers to start an endless chain system of correspondence to help Judge Parker. The address is signed "William Hoge, Secretary National Committee of Democratic Commercial Travelers and Business Men."

WILL MAINTAIN DIVIDENDS.

American Steel Foundries Will Pay Usual 6 per cent.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Announcement is made there will be no contest of any sort at the annual meeting of the American Steel Foundries Company, which will be held October 4.

The report of the company for the year ended July 31, is now in the hands of the auditors. According to an official of the corporation the statement will be more favorable than anticipated in August, 1903, when the depression in the iron and steel business began. Regular dividends, at the rate of 6 per cent a year on the preferred stock, will be maintained.

SEARCHING FOR BODY OF MURDERED MAN

IRWIN, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Local officers, assisted by a volunteer gang, are digging up a piece of ground in Hahntown in hopes of unearthing the body of Steve Padea, a Hungarian, who is alleged to have been murdered in a fight in a miner's shanty Sunday night. The body, it is alleged, was taken to a field and buried. Padea has not been seen since Sunday.

PERSONALS

Melville G. Sperry, an attorney of Clarksburg, W. Va., is at the Henry. Mr. Sperry speaks glowingly of Roosevelt's chances of carrying West Virginia by a large majority. "The high tide in Republican majorities in my state has been from 10,000 to 14,000, but I would not be surprised if it would go up to 25,000 this time," he said. "While Roosevelt and Fairbanks will get an immense vote, the Republican state ticket will be cut considerably because of the tax reform views and state Republican platform. The Standard Oil Company will fight Dawson, but the Republican leaders are confident he will pull through. Thousands of Bryan Democrats in West Virginia will vote for Roosevelt. I know of a couple of candidates for the state legislature on the Democratic ticket in counties adjoining my own who have told me that they are going to vote for Roosevelt. It is the same way all over the state. The Bryan Democrats are not satisfied with Parker. It is a mistake to say that Henry G. Davis, the Democratic candidate for vice president, is popular with the Democrats in West Virginia. It is well known that Mr. Davis has always been a Republican in business, always advocating a tariff, and is only a Democrat in politics." Mr. Sperry was formerly a prominent Democratic leader in the First congressional district of West Virginia, but left the party a few years ago.

Col. Joseph U. Crawford, chief engineer of the branch lines and bridges of the Pennsylvania railroad, passed through Union station on his way east last night after an inspection of the new branch line, 12 miles long, of the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railway, up Dunlap creek. This branch has been in the process of construction for two years and Chief Engineer Crawford said that it would be open to traffic on November 1. It is a new outlet to the Connellsville coke field.

Select Councilman John W. Robinson of Allegheny will leave with his daughter, Miss Mary Ann Robinson, this morning for Norristown, N. J., where Miss Robinson will enter the school of Miss Dana.

James K. Carmack, a former Pittsburgher, has been presented with a gold membership card by the Atlantic city lodge of Elks, which he organized in 1894. He was the first member initiated in Pittsburgh lodge No. 11, B. P. O. E., and was its first secretary. He has filled many offices in the order.

Col. Jose Charles Martinez y Figueroa and his daughter, accompanied by attendants, passed through Pittsburgh yesterday on their way to St. Louis. Col. Figueroa said he was banished from his native country, Uruguay, South America, two years ago for taking part in a revolution.

STATE BANK CASHIER PUT UNDER CLOSE QUESTIONING

Louis Klein Examined in Hearing of the Directors Who Are Under Charges.

Louis Klein, cashier of the defunct State Bank of Pittsburgh, was kept on the witness stand under severe examination for a long time yesterday afternoon in Alderman S. J. Toole's office. He was the first witness called in the hearing of the directors of the bank, who are charged by Depositor William A. Suckling with receiving deposits after the bank was insolvent.

Klein's cross-examination was rigid while it lasted, but owing to Receiver John F. Steel being out of town and the books and papers of the institution not being available, Attorney John Marron asked for an adjournment of the case until October 12. The examination of Klein will then be continued.

Klein testified he had been connected with the bank for four years as bookkeeper, teller and cashier. He said the directors had held regular meetings three times a week and that only on a few occasions had the meetings been held with less than a quorum present. He said he did not know that the bank was insolvent until the orders came from Banking Commissioner Robert McAfee at Harrisburg for the doors to close. He said that frequent examinations had been made by the official examiners, especially after November last, and that the statements made by the banks on call were the ones usually published in the newspapers. He said that the bank's capital was $50,000 and the deposits about $300,000, but he could not state the liabilities.

BOILING PEACH BUTTER FATALLY BURNS LAD

NEW CASTLE, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Steward Allen, the 16-year-old son of S. W. Allen of this city, is dying at the family's country home, near New Bedford, as the result of injuries received through the upsetting of a huge caldron of peach butter over him yesterday.

MELLOR'S

Great Inroads Have Been Made Upon Our Last Lot of NEW UPRIGHT

PIANOS $190

This is a very unusual sale of fine new upright pianos at $190 each. These instruments are worth $300, and people who have come to see them almost invariably have been purchasers.

We have had this lot of 100 new upright pianos in our store only a few days, but great inroads have been made upon the stock. If you come soon you will congratulate yourself afterwards. For these are doubtless the best piano values in the market. The opportunity may not come to you again to purchase a really high class piano at a price that is usually charged for ordinary instruments.

$10 DOWN, $6 A MONTH

A suggestion—All you pay is $10 down and $6 a month. We will deliver the instrument to you whenever you wish it. If you are going to buy a Christmas present for wife or daughter, why not a piano, and why not buy it now? You may take advantage of this unusual bargain now and if you do not wish the piano delivered now we will keep it in our store rooms for you till Christmas without extra charge.

Come now, take your choice; pay $10 down and the piano is yours. Only $6 a month thereafter pays the balance.

Better write at once for further information if you cannot come immediately.

NAVAL OFFICERS SAYING NOTHING

No Information on Attempt to Wreck the New Battleship Connecticut.

DRESS REHEARSAL FOR LAUNCH

SOME PERTINENT FACTS ABOUT THE CONNECTICUT

The third largest battleship in the world.

The Connecticut's displacement is 16,000 tons.

Her crew is to number 786 men.

Her barbette arbor is 12 inches thick.

Belt armor from four to 11 inches thick.

Horse-power, 16,500.

Length, 450 feet.

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

Details of the attempt to wreck the battleship Connecticut at her launching tomorrow were slow to materialize today. While Admiral Rodgers, commandant of the navy yard, was officially inclined to make light of the affair, it was learned that an obstruction was discovered planted on the ship's ways under water sufficient to check the vessel suddenly, as it slid swiftly down the ways, and what would have happened to the delicately balanced 16,000-ton hulk in that event can be imagined. The nature of the obstruction could not be learned, but it was officially said it was neither a pile, nor, as one report had it, a dynamite bomb.

Extra precautions to guard the ship were taken today and armed marines were patrolling about the inclosure wherein the final preparations are being made for the launching.

This official statement was obtained at the navy yard today from Naval Constructor Baxter, who has general charge of the shipbuilding plant:

"It is true that an obstruction was found on the ways down which the Connecticut is to slide into the water. It was sufficient to check the vessel. I will not say that it would have wrecked the Connecticut if it had not been discovered, and exactly what would have happened I am unable to tell. The obstruction was not a pile and no dynamite was found. It was, however, nothing that could have dropped from the ship or come there by accident."

Final preparations for the launching were being rushed through today. Miss Alice B. Welles, a Connecticut girl, now living in this city, will christen the ship by breaking a bottle of champagne over the bow as the vessel is released, which will be at 11 o'clock in the morning. Miss Welles and the naval constructors held a dress rehearsal of the ceremony late this afternoon. Secretary of the Navy Morton will attend the launching.

Some of the other persons who have been invited to attend are Grover Cleveland, Alton B. Parker, the Welles party, Mayor McClellan, Senator Platt, Gov. Abram Chamberlain of Connecticut, Gov. Warfield of Maryland, Gov. Murphy of New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Admiral Erben, Rear Admiral P. J. Cooper, Lieut.-Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, Rear Admiral J. B. Coghlan, Maj.-Gen. Corbin, Rear Admiral Wise, Rear Admiral Strong, Rear Admiral C. H. Davis, Rear Admiral Lamberton, Miss Helen Miller Gould, the duke of New Castle, Lewis Nixon, Surgeon General P. M. Rixey, Mrs. Russell Sage and Rear Admiral Rivet and staff of the French cruiser Dupleix.

CARD SYSTEM TO TRACK NEW YORK REPEATERS

Governor Odell Introduces New Idea into Metropolitan Politics and Takes Charge of Affairs.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Gov. Odell has supplanted New York city leaders by appointing personal representatives to go into the district and take charge of the campaign. In order to thoroughly canvass the whole territory he has advised a card index system of every building in New York city.

This card is arranged in such a manner as to show at a glance, when properly filled out, the name and politics of the janitor, the name, business, address and politics of the owner; the number of floors devoted to business and residence purposes and the number of men entitled to vote from it.

Under the present system the governor or any of his lieutenants hopes to be able to detect any inflation of the voting population. The cards will be at the disposal also of George W. Morgan, the state superintendent of elections, metropolitan district. It is upon this work that the governor has his hopes of keeping the Tammany plurality for the Democratic state and national tickets down to a much lower figure than usual.

TELEPHONE MEN MEET AT CAPITAL

Independent "Hello" Convention Wins Up Its Sessions at Harrisburg.

PLANS FOR GENERAL SERVICE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
HARRISBURG, PA., Sept. 28.

The general outlook for independent telephone companies in Pennsylvania and other states of the Union was never brighter.

This was the statement expressed by a majority of the delegates to the first annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Independent Telephone association, which closed tonight with an elaborate banquet, at which 200 telephone men were present.

Beside Pennsylvanians, managers of independent companies in Maryland and Delaware may enter the Pennsylvania association if they desire. In other states where no similar organization now exists plans have been formulated to have the independent people combine and it is predicted by those at the head of the movement that the time is not far distant when the network of independent wires which interlace the various states of the Union will be practically under one management.

The present idea, however, is to allow each company to maintain its individuality and to form a national association for the purpose of establishing a co-operative system for the maintenance of trunk lines.

Ex-Senator William Flinn of Pittsburgh, who was expected to be present at today's session of the convention, was detained at home by business. The companies in which the Pittsburgher is interested were represented by his son.

At the morning session Mayor McCormick made an address of welcome which was responded to by W. H. Denlinger, director of the Huntingdon & Clearfield Telephone Company, Patton. A report of the association was made by H. E. Bradley of Philadelphia, secretary. Then followed an address by John E. Hoge of Clearfield.

The afternoon session was devoted to these addresses by leaders in the movement in this state:

"Long-Distance Equipment," S. H. Browne, Pittsburgh; "Telephone Auditing," I. D. Gindhart, Jr., Philadelphia; "Progress of Independent Telephony," W. Scarlett, Harrisburg; "Telephone Exchange Equipment," Charles Russell, Philadelphia; "Traffic Association," H. E. Bradley, Philadelphia.

DONNELLY DENIES THE FAKE ROOSEVELT LETTER

Says He Never Received Such a Missive and Is Anxious to Learn Its Origin.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Secretary Loeb tonight made public a dispatch from United States Attorney Bethea at Chicago regarding the letter purporting to have been addressed by President Roosevelt to Michael Donnelly of Chicago, president of the Butchers and Meat Cutters' union and severely arraigning labor unions. The dispatch says that Mr. Donnelly received no such letter. The telegram follows:

"Chicago, Illinois, Sept. 28, 1904.

"Hon. Wm. Loeb, Jr., Secretary to the President, Washington, D. C.

"I have seen Mr. Donnelly. He of course received no such letter as that referred to in the morning papers and expresses his desire to find the person who first printed it as a genuine letter, and wishes to do anything in his power to counteract its extended effects.

"S. H. BETHEA, U. S. Attorney."

BANK FIGHT IS TO BE REOPENED

Opposition in Councils Determined to Keep City's Funds from Favored Institutions.

NEW SELECTION TO BE MADE

The fight over the city depositories is to be reopened in councils and an attempt is to be made to upset the work done by council several months ago in selecting four favored banks as depositories for the four years beginning the first of next February. Controller Larkin and the leaders of the opposition faction in select council claim no contract exists between the city and the banks, and that the repeal of the resolution adopted in June will not violate any agreement.

It is also claimed the banks have not signed an agreement or contract that will compel them to pay 2 per cent interest or any interest on deposits if they should not choose to pay it. As the resolution adopted in June does not take effect until February 1, 1905, the anti-administration councilmen contend the matter is open to legislation until the end of the year.

Besides holding the city cannot force the four banks chosen to pay interest on the city's funds, because of the absence of any contract to this effect, they also hold the adoption of the resolution appointing the four banks is illegal because it did not take the regular course in councils and because it was not signed by the mayor.

Upon these grounds a new bill is to be introduced in councils providing for the city's funds to be distributed among a greater number of banks and to give the contract to the banks which offer the highest rate of interest.

The leading banks of the city, outside of the four selected by the administration, are expected to support the move in councils to have another set of city depositories appointed. It will be remembered that the leading national banks of the city organized to make a fight in councils for a wider distribution of the city's funds, but one of the prime movers was taken up by the administration and the scheme came to naught last June.

Select Councilman R. H. Douglas, who leads the opposition in select council, said yesterday there is nothing to prevent councils from legally electing new city depositories and that the resolution appointing the four banks selected in June is not worth the paper it is written on. The bank fight will be reopened just as soon as some action is taken on the bond issue, as the city depositories will benefit from the proceeds of the bond sale.

City Solicitor Rodgers will not file the suit to compel the controller to advertise the bonds for sale until the other mandamus case, to compel the controller to pay the salaries of the filtration employes, is settled. It has been nearly two weeks since the latter case was heard, and a decision is expected any day.

COL. GUFFEY CALLS ON JUDGE PARKER

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Among Judge Parker's noteworthy callers today were Senator Isador Rayner, Gov. Edwin Warfield and H. W. Rusk, all of Maryland. Mr. Rusk is chairman of the Baltimore Democratic committee. Among other callers were ex-Gov. Thomas of Colorado, True L. Morris, national committeeman from New Hampshire; former Representative Ben T. Cable of Illinois, Col. J. M. Guffey, national committee man from Pennsylvania, and E. C. Benedict of Connecticut, a personal friend of former President Cleveland.

THAT ROOSEVELT LETTER WAS PURELY IMAGINARY

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—The letter alleged to have been received by Michael J. Donnelly, the leader of the meat strike, purporting to be one sent by President Roosevelt, was copied from an editorial in the New York Evening Post of August 1. The letter was explicitly stated to be a letter which the president might have written, with advantage to himself and the country. It was confessedly an imaginary letter.

BEAUTIFUL CLEARVIEW

Possesses Every Advantage That Goes to Make an Ideal Residence Locality.

Clearview is located five miles south of the Pittsburgh postoffice, in the heart of the Mt. Lebanon district, and is surrounded by beautiful homes. Upon completion of the Mt. Washington tunnel line (which is practically completed) it will take just 15 minutes to reach Clearview from the postoffice. Clearview is an ideal residence locality, healthful, convenient and picturesque, with all improvements—high-pressure water supply, sewers, gas, telephone, schools and churches. Clearview appeals to those who wish to own a permanent home in a refined community free from smoke, dirt and fog. Modern houses with all conveniences and large lots (none less than 50x155) for sale at reasonable prices and on easy terms. A visit to Clearview will convince you of its desirability. To reach Clearview at present, take Mt. Lebanon or Castle Shannon car on Liberty Ave. or Smithfield St.

PENROSE GOES TO VISIT CORTELYOU

Every Republican Candidate's Certificate Has Been Filed at Harrisburg.

CHAIRMAN HAS EARNED A REST

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 28.

Senator Boies Penrose, Republican state chairman, left today for New York, where he was summoned for a conference by National Chairman George B. Cortelyou. Chairman Penrose, in view of the fact that he has settled all of the serious contentions in Pennsylvania, felt no negligence upon his part in spending a few days with the national chairman. He will remain until Saturday.

A very highly deserved tribute was today received by Col. W. R. Andrews, secretary of the state committee. It was in the form of a telegram from George D. Thorn, chief clerk of the state department at Harrisburg. It read:

"Owing to the vigilance, persistence, activity and good judgment of the secretary of the state committee, every Republican candidate's certificate of nomination has been filed."

Secretary Andrews has very ably aided Chairman Penrose in his efforts to have all certificates of nomination filed before the time limit expired yesterday, September 27. His success in this line is appreciated by the state department.

Among other callers at headquarters today were Congressional Candidate John M. Reynolds, William Lauder, candidate for national elector, and Senator William C. Miller, all of Bedford county.

Col. S. W. Davies, Republican chairman in Cambria county, was another visitor at headquarters. Mr. Davies said that everything was all right in Cambria and that the Republicans of his county would give a good report in November. Congressman Leasean of York and James M. Shoemaker, superintendent of public grounds and buildings at Harrisburg, were the other western visitors.

GENERAL HOWARD ANSWERS CRITICS

Says Only Mistake Made in Pension Order Was Not Issuing it Sooner.

GOLD STANDARD FIRMLY FIXED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

Gen. O. O. Howard was the speaker at the noonday meeting at the Roosevelt and Fairbanks Commercial Travelers' league today. Gen. Howard started by saying he had just returned from the west and that Colorado sent greetings of the right sort to New York.

"At a convention in Denver a few days ago there was more enthusiasm than I have seen since 1865," he said, "and it all centered on the best president, I think, we have ever had, Theodore Roosevelt. It is wonderful to see the two men, President Roosevelt and John Hay, at the head of things. Now here we got sense enough to keep them there in spite of the opposition?"

In speaking of the gold standard, Gen. Howard said it had come to stay "and the Democratic party has come to acknowledge it both in its platform and in what Judge Parker has said and written about it. We know Theodore Roosevelt has the executive ability," said the speaker. "He has found out what the law is and then he has enforced it. Whatever law you give to Roosevelt, you know that he will execute it. Some people ask why he allowed the pension order to be issued. I do not think that that is the question; the question is, why did he not issue the order sooner? I will tell you. Because he was hoping and I was hoping that congress would pass a law that every man who helped save the nation should have a pension at this time of his life."

"Ole Black Joe" Is Dead.

Wabash Management Completes Plans for Starting Local Trains

Plans were completed yesterday by the passenger and operating departments of the Wabash-Pittsburgh Terminal Railway Company for the initiation on Sunday next of local passenger service on the line between Pittsburgh and Mingo Junction. The plans finally approved provide for two additional trains each way daily. One of these trains will only go as far as Hickory, while the other will run through to Mingo Junction. The methods by which the company will be enabled to give this service with the use of a surprisingly small equipment are a model of ingenious management. The new trains are in addition to the present local service of an outbound morning train, returning in the evening.

The first local run to be initiated will be the one to leave Mingo Junction at 5:30 a. m., central time, due to reach Pittsburgh at 7:25 a. m. The next local train leaves Pittsburgh at 10 a. m. and will reach Hickory at 11:15. Returning the train will leave Hickory at 11:45 a. m., and reach Pittsburgh at 1 p. m. The train leaves Pittsburgh again at 4:30 p. m., and arrives at Mingo Junction at 6:30 p. m.

The stations which will be reached by the local trains are: Ben Avon, Carnegie, Bridgeville, Cecil, Venice, Hickory, Woodrow, Prin, West Middletown, Rockdale and Mingo Junction. The country through which the Wabash runs is well settled and to many communities the new road offers facilities in the way of easy access which they have never before enjoyed. The full announcement of times at each station will be made in a few days by the company.

Pensy Plans to Resume New Work.

The resumption of work on various improvements which had been started by the Pennsylvania railroad was considered by the directorate at its monthly meeting yesterday. The matter has been in charge of a committee which for the past few months has been carefully studying the needs of the system in this respect, and was ready to report yesterday. The completion of the plans for third and fourth tracking the Pittsburgh division is being given special attention by reason of the demands of traffic, which are already becoming threatening. The memory of the winters of 1902 and 1901 has not yet passed from the minds of the Pennsylvania people, and they desire to be prepared for an onrush of traffic, which is certain to come when the general industrial conditions of this community have again become good.

Chicago Shipments Are Large.

The reports of freight originating on Chicago lines for eastbound shipment are being studied with care by railroad officials as being an excellent indication of the volume of general traffic moving. The grain receipts at Chicago last week were larger than in the same week of the past five years, aggregating 6,382,000 bushels. While decreasing 958,000 bushels from the receipts of the previous week, they exceeded by 640,000 bushels those in the corresponding period of last year. Eastbound shipments of grain last week were 749,000 bushels, a decrease of 122,000 from the corresponding period of last year. Flour shipments were 31,695 barrels, an increase for the week of 4,032 barrels, but a decrease of 14,411 barrels from the same of last year. Shipments of dressed beef and other packing-house products amounted to 27,456 tons, 1,812 tons more than the previous week, but 5,544 tons less than in the corresponding time of last year.

Will Award Steel Contract.

The contract will be awarded next week for the steel work on the superstructure of the new Wabash freight house to be built adjoining the passenger station train shed, between First and Fourth avenues. About 4,600 tons of steel will be needed, and the building is expected to cost $200,000. The station will not be the largest in the city, its total length being only 809 feet, but in connection with the Wabash terminals on the South Side, will form a useful and central location for the delivery and receipt of downtown city freight.

Railroad Notes.

C. H. Richardson, road foreman of engines of the Baltimore & Ohio at Lorain, has been summoned by President L. F. Loree of the Rock Island to assume the position of general road foreman of equipment of the Rock Island.

The official announcement of the changes in the Rock Island's staff here has been made by circular. D. E. Milleren, as traveling passenger agent, and William Milligan, as traveling freight agent, will both be transferred to Texas.

E. D. Fulton of Uniontown, secretary of the Greene County railroad, one of the Wabash projects, spent yesterday here in conference with the Wabash-Pittsburgh officials.

Survivors of the famous sixteenth Pennsylvania volunteer infantry met in the second reunion in ten years at Washington, Pa., last Tuesday. Forty-six members of the original command were present and cheerfully stood for the photographer while he secured a picture of the group. They were a jolly lot of old fighters and they talked of the days when they wore the blue and sang the songs of the Civil war with as much fervor as in the days from '61 to '65. No regiment in the service came home with a prouder record than the famous sixteenth.

COON DOGS FOUND BODY OF UNKNOWN

Corpse Was Discovered in a Field Near Riverview Park, Allegheny City.

SICK MAN KILLED HIMSELF

The coon dogs of Elmer Schniddle of 1229 Lake street, Allegheny, found the dead body of a man in a field off Hawkins avenue, not far from Riverview park, yesterday. The body was taken to the morgue. The man had been dead for about 24 hours and death was due to heart failure. A leather cigar case was found in his pocket and contained a piece of paper on which "Martin Graham" was written. He was about 40 years old, 5 feet 10 inches tall and weighed about 150 pounds. He wore a dark suit of clothes, soft striped shirt and a black stiff hat.

Charles A. Francis, aged 38, employed at the Westinghouse air brake works, committed suicide last night by shooting himself in the right temple with a revolver. He was despondent owing to ill health. His body was found by the police at the head of Westinghouse avenue, near the Pennsylvania railroad. Francis formerly lived in Philadelphia.

Patrick Clark, aged 60, of 15 Federal street extension, Allegheny, fell into a quarry near Dixmont yesterday and broke his neck. He climbed the bank of the quarry to get some apples during dinner hour. As he was returning he slipped and fell over the embankment.

Robert Lawson, aged 61, colored, of 2818 Fifth avenue, was found dead in bed at his home yesterday. Death was due to consumption.

Frederick Kolosman, an Italian who cut his throat with a piece of a glass tumbler in his room at 40 Shores alley last Friday night, died at Passavant hospital yesterday. It was first thought Kolosman had been assaulted. A number of colored girls in the house were arrested and taken before the wounded man, but he was unable to recognize any of them. Superintendent of Detectives McQuaide and his officers found the glass with which he had wounded himself, and on which were some thumb prints. A plaster cast was taken of Kolosman's thumb and it compared identically with the marks on the glass.

Edward Joseph Tracy, aged 49, of 1234 Warner street, Allegheny, died at Mercy hospital yesterday morning from injuries received by being run over by a train on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne & Chicago railroad at Verner station. He was a railway conductor.

The dead body of a female child about two days old was found in Peters creek, above Hays borough, at 6:30 o'clock last night. It was scantily clothed.

BETTER PAY THE FINE.

Such Is English Opinion Regarding the Arrest of Diplomat Hugh Gurney.

LONDON, Sept. 28.—The Westminster Gazette this afternoon accurately sums up the official opinion of the incident resulting from the fining by Justice Phelps, of Lee, Mass., of Hugh Gurney, third secretary of the British embassy at Washington, for violating the speed law relating to automobiles and for contempt of court, saying:

"It seems desirable that gentlemen connected with the legation should keep on the safe side of local law when they use motor cars, but if perchance they transgress, the simplest, quietest plan is, perhaps, to waive their privilege and pay the fine."

LYON TO BE DIRECTOR.

Pittsburgh Banker Chosen to Represent Outside Stockholders of Crucible.

J. D. Lyon of the banking firm of N. Holmes & Sons is to be the representative of the outside stockholders on the board of directors of the Crucible Steel Company. The management has conceded this point to the stockholders who were trying to force their way into the inside of the big concern.

Mr. Lyon seems to be acceptable to the leaders of the outside stockholders, as well as to the management of the company. There is still some difference of opinion over the proposed bond issue.

AMERICAN BAR ELECTS OFFICERS FOR YEAR

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—The American Bar association, at its final session today, elected the following officers: President, Henry St. George Tucker, Lexington, Va., dean of the school of law of Washington and Lee university; secretary, John Hinkley, Baltimore; treasurer, Frederick E. Wadham, Albany, N. Y., and one vice president from each state.

WU TING FANG IS SENT ON A MISSION

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 28.—Information received here tends to confirm the recent Pekin report that Wu Ting Fang, former Chinese minister to the United States, will be sent on a special mission to Europe and America. His mission will be to sound the neutral powers on the subject of the protection of China's interests in the peace negotiations at the close of the war.

Police Think They Have Saloon Robbers.

The police have three men suspected of complicity in the robbery of Fred Hochstetter's saloon in Butler street early Sunday morning. Hugh Dugan, who confessed to having had a hand in it, was held for court yesterday by Magistrate Kane. Patrick O'Brien and James Kaufield are held as suspicious persons. Some empty whisky bottles, found on the Allegheny river bank at the foot of Forty-eighth street, have been identified by Hochstetter.

SNEEZING CAUSED DEATH OF WOMAN 93 YEARS OLD

Mrs. Susanna Agnew Nicholson of Wexford Never Recovered from Spasm Induced by Slight Cold—Settled Here in 1833.

Suffering from internal injuries, caused by a violent spasm of sneezing, Mrs. Susanna Agnew Nicholson, aged 93, died Tuesday night at her home in Wexford, on the Perrysville plank road. Several weeks ago Mrs. Nicholson contracted a slight cold that was attended by excessive sneezing. Although terribly exhausted, Mrs. Nicholson recovered slightly, but the injuries caused by the paroxysm made her death merely a matter of days. She retained consciousness until within a few hours of her death.

Mrs. Nicholson immigrated to this country from County Down, Ireland, where she was born in 1811. Her father, John Agnew, brought with him a family of 15 children and settled in Washington county, where he remained for little more than a year. They then took up residence on the South Side, where in 1847 Susanna Agnew was married to William J. Nicholson, who for years kept a hotel in the borough of Birmingham.

Shortly after her husband's death, in 1852, his wife moved with her two children to a farm in Wexford, where she made her home until death claimed her. She was a faithful member of the Pine Creek Presbyterian church, from where she will be buried on Friday morning. Her only surviving child is Miss Nannie Nicholson.

WORLD'S LEGAL LIGHTS MEET IN CONVENTION

Former Secretary Foster Declares This Country Should Strive for Disarmament.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 28.—The first universal congress of lawyers and jurists, held under the auspices of the American Bar association, convened here today at the conclusion of the American Bar association's convention. Eminent lawyers and jurists from all over the world were in attendance. The president of the congress is the Hon. David J. Brewer, associate justice of the supreme court of the United States.

After the routine work John W. Foster, formerly secretary of state, was introduced. He spoke upon international arbitration and said he hoped Secretary Morton of the United States navy had been misquoted when the press reported him as saying he favored a navy equal to the greatest navy of the world. In closing, he said:

"Our government should hold itself ready to enter into an agreement for international disarmament, and not for the increase of the navy. This country should hold itself to other and far more peaceful pursuits in the settlement of strife than to the making of implements of destruction and death."

SIGNOR PINTO LOSES JEWEL.

Conductor of Boys' Orchestra Bemoaning Disappearance of Valuable Brooch.

Signor A. F. Pinto, conductor of the Boys' New York Symphony orchestra, filling an engagement this week at the exposition, is mourning the loss of a diamond which disappeared yesterday. The jewel was a memento and highly prized, and Signor Pinto has offered a reward of $25 for its return.

Last night the orchestra played a "College Colors" program, consisting of a collection of college music. The orchestra closes its engagement on Saturday night, and the youthful musicians while proving a novelty in this city, have also met with hearty receptions each day. The program for this afternoon is as follows:

THIEVES STRIP CHURCH.

They Took a Stained Glass Window and Wanted the Big Front Door.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Burglars broke into the Lexington Avenue Baptist church, at One Hundred and Eleventh street and Lexington avenue, last night, and practically stripped it of all its interior furnishings and several hundred dollars in cash.

The burglars obtained a stained glass window, 10 feet high, four feet wide; copper boiler, weighing 200 pounds; kitchen utensils, lead pipe, gold and silver communion services, Church Bible and several hundred dollars in cash; pew cushions, hymn books and hassocks, church library. Not satisfied with all this loot, the band tried to make away with the huge oak front door of the church.

Lafcadio Hearn Dead.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The death of Lafcadio Hearn, the author, is announced from Japan today. He was born in the Ionian islands, of Greek and Irish parents, in 1850. At 19 he came to the United States and engaged in newspaper work on the Cincinnati Enquirer. He drifted from there to New Orleans and then went to Japan, where he became a professor in the imperial university. He was the author of many works on Japan and Japanese subjects and his writings are looked upon as classics.

Desires Arbitration Treaty.

MANCHESTER, ENG., Sept. 28.—The association of the chambers of commerce of the United Kingdom today passed a resolution urging the government to conclude an arbitration treaty with the United States.

PRIEST QUIETS ANGRY MOB BENT ON LYNCHING

WILKESBARRE, PA., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—After shooting Mine Foreman Anthony O'Malley and Constable Bryan Caffrey tonight, Casper Lukawicz narrowly escaped being lynched. Father J. E. Collegan of the Sacred Heart church at Plains, saving him from the crowd, which fought to get at him.

Lukawicz is employed at the Henry colliery of the Lehigh Valley Coal Company and shot Foreman O'Malley in the thigh this evening.

Lukawicz barricaded himself in his house while Justice McDonald of Plainsville issued a warrant and gathered a force to serve it. Constable Caffrey and Joseph Langan rushed at a window to break in and Lukawicz fired. Caffrey fell, shot through the chest. The news of this shooting spread rapidly and a crowd gathered so quickly that Lukawicz, fearing injury, gave himself up. Father Collegan appeared on the scene, and by his efforts managed to get Lukawicz safely to the justice's office.

The condition of both wounded men is serious.

SCORED BOOK STORE.

Blairsville Presbytery Is Dissatisfied With Management of Its Pittsburgh Concern.

GREENSBURG, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—At the fall meeting of the Blairsville presbytery at Parnsboro yesterday the management of the Presbyterian book store in Pittsburgh was roundly scored, a number of members expressing their dissatisfaction at the present accommodations. The Rev. H. R. Johnson of Vandergrift was elected moderator. The Rev. W. G. Punk and the Rev. L. C. Denise were elected clerks. The Rev. Q. A. Gillingham, who has been supplying the Second church, Johnstown, was received from the presbytery of Osborne. R. E. Keirn of Barnsboro was expected as a candidate for the ministry. A call from the Pine Run congregation, the pastorate of which was held by the Rev. Dr. Henry Bain for 35 years, for the services of the Rev. J. C. McCracken, was received, Rev. Mr. McCracken accepting the call. The board of sustentation report that four missions have become self-supporting—Windber, Johnstown, Second; New Kensington and Congruity.

W. C. FOWNES, JR. VICTORIOUS

Captures Gold Medal in Golf Tourney on Hermitage Club Links.

The two days' gold tournament begun Tuesday at the Hermitage Golf club, Ligonier, was concluded yesterday. W. C. Fownes, Jr., of the Oakmont Country club won the golf medal for the lowest qualifying score on the opening day, his 74 equaling the record of the course. His father, H. C. Fownes, had the next lowest score and captured the silver medal thereby. G. W. Butts of Altoona won the cup in the first eight; W. H. Duff II. of the Edgewood Golf club won the silver cup in the second eight and his fellow club member, G. W. Wurzell, captured the cup in the third eight. H. R. Finney of Altoona won the handicap silver cup and W. C. Fownes got the silver medal for the second best score in the handicap. The results of the match play rounds were:

The women's tournament at the Brighton Country club, concluded yesterday, was won by Miss Eva Stoner, who defeated Mrs. Elliott Rodgers by 2 and 1.

The team match scheduled for yesterday between the Allegheny Country club and the Pittsburgh Golf club was postponed to Friday.

Grand Jury Reports.

STEUBENVILLE, O., Sept. 27.—(Special.)—The Jefferson county grand jury this evening returned 277 indictments. There are 18 felony cases, including two for second-degree murder—George Couch and Rock Fabro. The balance are for violations of the liquor laws and for gambling offenses.

HAZING WILL BE FORGOTTEN ART

Faculty of University of Pennsylvania Makes New Rules on Practice.

SOPHS MUST TAKE AN OATH

[The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Press Building, PHILADELPHIA, PA., Sept. 28.]

The faculty of the University of Pennsylvania has triumphed and hazing will be stopped, for the executive committee today invented a new barrier which will prevent even the most daring sophomores from hazing a freshman.

The new rule forces every sophomore when he registers to make a signed statement stating whether or not he has taken part in any hazings this year and before he becomes a member of the class he must make an affidavit that he will not take part in any hazing while he is a student at the university.

Every sophomore, and the number will be large, who has taken part in any initiations this year will have to go before the executive committee and punishment will be dealt out liberally. And any students who haze after this will be expelled without ceremony.

This is the death blow to hazing at Pennsylvania, for there is no way in which a sophomore can get around the signed statement. From Princeton comes the rumor that hazing is to be stopped there, as a result of the action of the faculty of the university here.

CUPID KEPT 'EM BUSY.

Ministers of East Liverpool Are Called on to Officiate at Eight Wedding Ceremonies.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Cupid was busy in this city today, eight weddings taking place. Among those of public interest was that of Robert W. Sample, a prominent young merchant, and Miss Sarah V. Dickey. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Taggart at the home of the bride whose brother, Edward Dickey, gave her away. Miss Elia L. Anderson was bridesmaid and James Manor best man. The bride wore white organdie over white silk. The bridesmaid's dress was of white organdie.

At St. Aloysius Catholic church this morning, the Rev. Father T. M. Smythe officiating, Miss Ida Nath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Nath, was married to John C. Walsh, Jr. Miss Katherine Walsh of West Bridgewater was bridesmaid. Michael Gibbons of this city was best man.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Higginson was the scene of a double wedding. Their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Higginson, was married to Mr. Harry J. Hancock, and Mr. Hancock's sister, Miss Lavinia Hancock, became the wife of Dr. H. E. Deal of Canton. The Rev. Edwin Weary, rector of St. Stephen's Episcopal church, performed the ceremonies.

Miss Minnie Gardner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Gardner, was quietly married at her home this evening to David Simmers.

WILL GO AFTER RECORDS.

Barney Oldfield Is Sure That He Will Set Some New Marks at Brunots.

Barney Oldfield will establish a few new records at the Brunot's Island track tomorrow and Saturday is the prediction of his manager. The mile course is in fine condition for high speed, and if Barney's machine doesn't take a notion to climb the fence he will reel off miles at a clip never before seen in these parts.

Oldfield is every inch the famous chauffeur that he bears the reputation of being, and the fact that he is here and using crutches for a sprained ankle which he received at St. Louis when his racing car, the Green Dragon Peerless, went through the fence, killing two spectators, and the fact that he will ride here at the races shows that he is not lacking in the wonderful nerve that he has the reputation of having. Oldfield stands 5 feet 10 inches in height, weighs close to 200 pounds and is a perfect specimen of the trained athlete.

TOSSED ABOUT BY CARS.

Except for Trifling Scratches, Little One Emerges Unhurt from Her Adventure.

NEW KENSINGTON, PA., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Martha, the 3-year-old daughter of John Sempf of this city, while her mother was busy, went out and sat down on the Buffalo & Allegheny Valley railroad tracks. A work train backed up and five freight cars had passed over the child, who was tossed about between the rails.

The train was stopped just as the tender of the engine reached the child. Except for a trifling scratch on one leg she was uninjured.

W. C. T. U. in Session.

GREENSBURG, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union of Westmoreland county opened here this afternoon. The address of welcome was made by Mrs. Linda F. Byers of Greensburg and the response by Mrs. A. F. Keister of Scottdale.

Another Negro Suspect Held.

A negro, answering the description of the man who assaulted Mrs. Thomas Boggan near Johnstown, Pa., was arrested here today and will be held until the authorities at Johnstown arrive to identify him.

Moderately priced millinery

WHILE we sell trimmed hats—imported models, for as much as $50—and also any number of creations every day ranging in price from $15 to $30—yet our greatest forte lies in supplying the headwear requirements of the multitudes seeking millinery elegance and style at a moderate price. There is probably but three or four retail houses in the country that distribute a greater number of trimmed hats ranging in price from 4.95 to 8.75

than "The Big Store." And there is not a house anywhere that invests its goods with more quality, style, character and charming grace than Kaufmann's. Each day we fill up cases that have been emptied of their treasures by the previous day's business. Thus each day there's a kaleidoscope of millinery newness here. The nimble wits and fingers of our large staff of millinery experts are continually working out new and pretty ideas.

Our 4.95 and 5.95 hats are equal in every way to the $7.50 and $8.50 products of other good stores.

Our 7.95 and 8.75 creations are on a par with the best you'll find elsewhere at $10 and $15. Particularly charming are the elegant black velvet hats at 8.75, trimmed with ostrich plumes.

The "Teddy" hat is one of our exclusive new shapes which we trim up to meet your own ideas. The above illustration shows one of these hats plainly but very strikingly gotten up.

Trimmed ready-to-wear hats at 1.50—the younger ladies will be greatly taken with the Amorita and London salior effects in this line, while the turbans will please those of more subdued tastes. All are appropriately trimmed ready to wear and most exception al value at the price..... 1.50

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

BOSTON, Sept. 28.—It happened again and the Boston fans went home shaking hands and rubbing their eyes as though they could not quite credit the evidence of their own senses. What is more, and worse, it happened twice. The weakened state of the Pittsburgh team was never more cruelly exemplified than it was today. "Three straight" to Boston. The like has not happened for many a day.

The Pittsburgh club, as at present constituted, is, to be sure, but a shadow of its former self, and Boston's double victory today was made by the weird fielding of the Champions than by any exceptional work on the part of the home team. It was by scores of 4 to 3 and 4 to 0 respectively that the Pittsburgh team encountered defeat. "We will win again tomorrow with Willis," remarked Manager Buckenberger, gleefully, when the matinee ended.

The first game of the double-header was a very loosely played match as far as fielding goes on both sides, and not much of the hitting was clean-cut. Pittinger was unable to control his "spit ball" in the early innings, and the frequent bases on balls dragged out the game until the fans grew weary. None of the passes proved to be very costly, but after hitting Leach and striking out Bransfield and Kruger in the fourth, "Pitt" allowed three rather scratchy hits, which, with the coincident fumbling and wild throwing of the ball by Deier, resulted in as many runs.

Errors gave Boston a run in the same inning, but they did not get into the lead until the seventh, when Pittsburgh's ragged fielding and some of the luckiest kind of hitting brought three of "Buck's" men across the rubber. The outfielders had little to do. Phelps' throwing to bases was very weak. Fred Clarke went to bat in the ninth, his first participation in a game since the streak of injuries commenced which has so fatally crippled the Pirate team.

Without Wagner, who has gone home to rest, Clarke, Phillippe and Smith, and as they have played in these games, the Pirates hardly look the team to contest with the Boston Americans in another post-season series (as proposed by Col. Dreyfuss) in anything like so close an argument as they gave the American champions last October.

The second game was a travesty on baseball, a farce. Barclay, by brilliant sprinting and slide, reached third on Tenney's sacrifice in the sixth after Leach's error had given him a lift. He started, but slipped and fell on Batty's grounder to Kruger, and while the entire Pittsburgh infield tried for three or four minutes to run the old Lafayette sprinter down between bases, Abbattacchio crept around. Then somebody made an awful throw and both men scored. A double by Delehanty and Needham's single brought in another run. Boston had scored in the third on McNichol's scratch, a passed ball, Geier's bunt and Tenney's hit. Pittsburgh had only made two hits and no runs when the entertainment was called off on account of darkness in the seventh. The scores:

MAY MEET BOSTON.

Giants to Play That Team in Case It Wins the American League. Race.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—It is possible that, after all, the Giants will play a post-season series for the world's championship, but not with the Highlanders. The unpleasantness resulting from the criticisms of press and public over Mr. Brush's statement referring to the Americans as a minor league club and his refusal to let his team play a world's championship series, it is said, influenced Mr. Brush to change his attitude.

He had hoped that his statement would serve to settle for once and all the controversy concerning the series between the Giants and the Highlanders, but instead his statement served as a boomerang.

One of the New York National league players said tonight: "When McGraw asked us if we would stick to him in his refusal to play the Highlanders we agreed to do so. We feel that we owe it to McGraw to stand by him, and we will, but it's pretty tough on the players to be considered quitters by the public. Of course there is no chance of us playing the Highlanders, but I do think there is a good chance of us playing the Bostons if they win the pennant."

HN HENRY JAHN S FOUND GUILTY

l Estate Man Convicted of raudulently Uttering a Written Instrument.

ATER COMPANY'S ANSWER

John Henry Jahn was found guilty yesterday of fraudulently uttering a written instrument, the second count of the indictment against him, in the case in which Mrs. Asselmeyer charged him with the forgery of her name to a deed for property.

The jury retired late Tuesday afternoon, and after being out all night, went into court for instructions regarding the count on which he was convicted. The penalty for this crime is limited to 10 years, but the jury added a recommendation for mercy.

Seven additional cases against Jahn are on the trial list today, and one of these will probably be taken up. Assistant District Attorney W. D. Grimes and C. A. O'Brien represented the commonwealth, and John S. Robb, Jr., the defendant.

The South Pittsburgh Water Company has filed answer in the equity suit brought by Harry Moore to prevent the absorption of the Chartiers Water Company. The answer denies the Chartiers company was doing a lucrative business and asserts that company was not keeping pace with the growth of the district. It is denied Moore prior to the lease, made any charges of fraud. It is asserted that if Moore or the other stockholders retain their present holdings in the Chartiers company their dividends will not exceed 1% per cent, while under the merger a greater dividend will be paid. The assertion is made that the lease was effected lawfully and was opposed only by Moore and a few small stockholders, whom he influenced. The charge that any stock is to be distributed among any of the officers without consideration or at a discount, is denied.

The answer says the South Pittsburgh company has agreed to provide funds to pay the floating debt of the Chartiers company to the amount of $165,000, and to meet its bonded indebtedness of $3,000,000; to repair, enlarge and improve its plant. Since taking possession it has made large expenditures and incurred various obligations. It is asked that the bill be dismissed.

Bill in Equity Dismissed.

In the equity suit of Sidney B. Liggett and others against Sarah J. Loyd, Judge Macfarlane in an opinion decides in favor of the defendant and dismisses the bill at the plaintiff's costs. The suit involved the peculiar will of the late Eliza L. Clark, which has been the subject of considerable litigation. In the present suit the plaintiffs, who base their inheritance on blood relationship, attempted to prevent the defendant from taking what is known as the Young Men's Christian association lot in Sharpsburg, valued at $10,000 or $12,000, under a devise that said she was to have one lot. Judge Macfarlane decides the devise is valid and that while no particular lot is stipulated the devise is sufficient to permit the defendant to elect in taking a lot, and that she was not limited to a lot 26x100. The defendant, the court finds, lived with Mrs. Clark for 30 years, the two living alone. Under the decree of orphans court she has been awarded for services and money loaned, $22,339 50.

Judge Macfarlane, in the equity suit of J. P. Creghan against F. L. Norton and others, doing business as the Pittsburgh Safe Company, dismisses exceptions and orders a final confirmation of the decree. The suit involved a transaction by which plaintiff was to sell stock in the company.

Allege Incapacity of Testator.

In the estate of John Fischer, deceased, Frederick Fischer and Pauline Riehl, secured a citation on the beneficiaries under the will to show cause why it should not be set aside. They say they are children of the deceased, but received nothing under the will, the estate going to other children and relatives. It is alleged he was not of proper mental capacity when he executed the instrument, which has been probated.

In the estate of Henry Klenke, deceased, Judge Over has filed an opinion deciding the widow is entitled to certain money in an account jointly held with her husband.

In the suit of H. Treelisky against the Columbia National Bank the jury returned a verdict for the defendant. The plaintiff claimed an entry in his pass book showing a deposit had been unwarrantably scratched off.

In criminal court Alderman William F. Walsh of the Thirty-fifth ward was acquitted of two charges of larceny, but was ordered to pay the costs in the suits. The charges were made by Thomas Little and Charles Walters, who claimed Walsh had purchased a circus they had been connected with and had then refused to give them their clothes, which were packed in circus trunks.

Walsh alleged he told Little if he wanted his clothes he could have them, and denied Walters ever asked for his.

In an opinion filed by Judge Shafer on exceptions to his former opinion in the litigation between M. D. Hays and W. C. Jutte, the court finds that $16,398 75 is due Hays. Jutte is directed to pay three-fourths and Hays one-fourth of the costs.

Darwin E. Harvey, a bonding and insurance agent of Crafton, entered a petition in bankruptcy. He gives his liabilities as $1,346 73, with assets of $2,158 50.

Suit on Two Notes.

E. P. Remington has entered suit against R. H. M. MacKenzie to recover $2,122 86 alleged to be due on two notes.

The wills of J. M. Schaefer and Dr. Charles M. Schaefer, his son, late of Pittsburgh, were offered for probate. The father leaves a $55,000 estate to his widow and his son a $3,500 estate to his mother.

In the divorce suit of Orville Brown against Emma Brown the court has ordered the decree opened and the defendant let in to a defense.

Bills for Murder.

Among the true bills returned by the grand jury yesterday were two, charging Frank Diebold, Sr., of Heidelburg, and Earl McIntyre of Manersville, Armstrong county, with murder. Diebold is charged with the murder of his 11-year-old son, Frank J., at their home on Tuesday, August 30. The crime was one of the most brutal ever committed in Allegheny county, the boy being hacked to death with a hatchet while he was lying in bed. The father was said to have been out all night drinking and returned to his home intoxicated. He is said to have gone into the boy's room with a hatchet, turned back the clothes from the sleeping boy and began to chop at the lad, almost severing his head from his body. He then left the house and, meeting some friends on the streets, boasted to them of his crime.

McIntyre is charged with causing the death by drowning of Charles Barrett on Friday, June 2, of this year. The men were employed on the steamer I. C. Woodward, and are said to have quarreled while on the Monongahela river, near the Glenwood bridge. During the scuffle Barrett was pushed into the river and before he could be rescued was drowned. The dead man was a laborer, 21 years old and single.

The other true bills returned were as follows: Felonious assault and battery, William Davis, Albert Teeters; assault and battery, Edward J. Feiter (2), Martin Miscukiyzy, Frank Raymond; false pretense, C. P. McCombs; selling liquor illegally, Bridget Lee (3); keeping a gambling house, Joseph Johnson; larceny, John Doe, James Maloney, John Mackin et al., John Spiliski; misdemeanor, Frank Bennett, E. J. Beckdel et al., John Barna, John Beackla, Joseph Duke, Jr., William Geidel, M. Maloney, John Simon.

YALE GETS BLOOD MONEY.

Sum Paid by China for Murder of Two Missionaries Given to That University.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Sept. 28.—Yale university has received $17,000 in gold from the British government, to be placed to the credit of the Yale foreign mission in Changsha, China. The money represents the amount paid by the Chinese government for the murder of two English missionaries in Punan, two years ago. The society to which the murdered missionaries belonged refused, as a matter of principle, to accept a cash gift as payment for the murder.

SOCIETY

MISS LOUISE E. THEOBALD, daughter of Mrs. P. R. Theobald, of Philadelphia, and Mr. William Tyson Graham of Allegheny, were married at the home of the bride's mother, 1635 North Broad street, Philadelphia, last evening, by the Rev. Lawrence M. Colfelt, pastor of the Oxford Presbyterian church. The bride entered the parlor which was handsomely decorated for the occasion with pink and white flowers and palms and greens, on the arm of her brother, Benjamin F. Theobald. She wore white chiffon cloth, trimmed with Duchesse lace and carried lilies of the valley and orchids. Her tulle veil was fastened with a wreath of orange blossoms and she wore a necklace of pearls and diamonds, the gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Joseph L. Jones, the bride's sister, attended. She wore a robe of crepe de chene and Duchesse lace and carried white roses. The bridesmaids included Miss Elizabeth Graham, the bridegroom's sister; Miss Mary Buck, Miss Edith Theobald and Miss Bertha Theobald, sisters of the bride. The wore white net frocks over taffeta and carried pink chrysanthemums. Three little girls, Eleanor Jones, the bride's niece; Eleanor Kopp and Dorothy Kopp, neices of the bridegroom, were flower bearers and the bride's nephew, Philip McCluchen, and Joseph L. Jones, III., acted as pages.

Mr. Talbot C. Graham, the bridegroom's brother, was best man and the ushers were Mr. Walter Burtt of Washington, D. C.; Mr. James Davidson of Allegheny; Mr. John D. Clarke of New York, and Mr. Edwin Weihnmayer. A large reception followed the ceremony. The honeymoon will be spent traveling. Mr. and Mrs. Graham will reside in Allegheny.

Mrs. Hanna's Tea.

As a farewell before leaving her summer home in Edgewood Park, Mrs. Benjamin Mairs Hanna of the Hotel Schenley gave a very enjoyable little tea yesterday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock. The affair lacked all formality and was without a special guest of honor, Mrs. Hanna receiving alone. She was assisted by a number of young girls, each of whom wore a pretty white gown of summer material. The assistants included Miss Mary Lane, Miss Sarah Lloyd, Miss Mary Elderkin, Miss Milly Hockensmith and Miss Louise Shaffer, who has been the house guest of Mrs. Hanna for some weeks. Little Miss Emma Jane Hanna, the small daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Hanna, who is not yet able to toddle, dressed in a dainty frock, also assisted in entertaining her mother's guests.

Pink carnations and greens were used to decorate the home. They occupied the center of the dining room table, which was uncovered save for several handsome Duchesse lace doilies. A dinner for the assistants followed the reception. Dr. and Mrs. Hanna expect to make a short trip to New York before returning to the Schenley for the winter.

Miss Knox's Wedding Hour Changed.

The wedding of Miss Rebekah Page Knox, daughter of Senator Philander C. Knox, and James Robert Tindle, which was originally set for noon on Saturday, October 15, will take place at 4 o'clock on the afternoon of the same day. Miss Althea Mohler will be Miss Knox's only attendant and Mr. Tindle will have Charles Wood Tindle, his brother, for best man. Hugh Knox and Reed Knox, brothers of the bride-elect, will be the ushers. Mr. Tindle has taken the Frederick McVay house in Grove street, Sewickley, and there he and his bride will be at home after their return from their wedding trip. The Rev. Dr. Robert Waddington Grange, rector of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Ascension, where Senator Knox was a vestryman for a number of years, will officiate at the wedding.

In Honor of Miss Gleffer.

One of the most enjoyable of the many social affairs being given in honor of Miss Anna Converse Gleffer, an October bride-elect, was the salamagundi party and kitchen shower at which Miss Charlotte Prugh of Coltart square, the eldest daughter of the Rev. Dr. John H. Prugh, was hostess yesterday afternoon. Miss Julietta Prugh, a sister of the hostess, was the only assistant. The prizes were won by Miss Edith Fouse and Miss Elsie Ganter, in addition to whom the guests included Miss Gleffer, the guest of honor; Miss Pauline Gleffer, Miss Amy Prince, Miss Henrietta Black, Miss Irma Bixler, Miss Emma Taylor, Miss Janet Bryce, Miss Ella Harris, Miss Bertha Denniston, Miss Martha Hagan, Miss Elsie Denniston, Miss Marion McKelvy, Miss Marjorie Walters and Miss Lyda Shaler.

Out-of-Town Guests Here for Wedding.

There are several people from out of town who have come to Pittsburgh to attend the wedding of Miss Vardy Hemingray Marshall and Dr. Russell Bigler Armor this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wightman of Squirrel Hill are entertaining Maj. and Mrs. William C. Armor, parents of the prospective bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. John Mellick, cousins of Dr. Armor, all from Harrisburg. Miss Lydia Thompson of Louisville, Ky., is the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Vardy Marshall, the parents of the bride-elect, over the wedding. The rehearsal took place last evening.

Blank-Lang.

Miss Dorothea Blank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Blank of Etna, was married to Leo Lang of Sharpsburg in St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, in Sharpsburg, yesterday. The Rev. Father John Otten performed the ceremony. Fifty guests attended the ceremony, after which a wedding breakfast was served at the Union hotel, Etna. The couple will be at home in Sharpsburg after October 1.

Allegheny Girls Bridesmaids.

NORWICH, CONN., Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Miss Elizabeth N., only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Camp of this city, and Robert H. Chappell, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Chappell, were married here this evening. The Rev. Nelson Poe Carey performed the ceremony in Christ church. Miss Isabel Pontefract of Allegheny was maid of honor. Miss Gertrude Irwin of Allegheny was one of the bridesmaids.

Invitations for Somerset Wedding.

Invitations were received in Pittsburgh yesterday for the marriage of Miss Nell Louise Harrison, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Charles J. Harrison of Somerset, and John Crosby Brydon on Wednesday, October 12, in the Trinity Lutheran church of Somerset. The wedding will be followed by a large reception at the Highland inn.

Visiting in Pittsburgh.

Miss Stella McConnell of Kent, O., is the house guest of Miss Cora Fife of Mt. Washington.

Bishop Potter's Nephew Weds.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 28.—Miss May Handy of this city was married today to James Brown Potter of New York. The Rev. G. Otis Mead of Christ Episcopal church officiated. William Duane of New York acted as best man. The bride is the daughter of Capt. Edward Handy, U. S. N. Mr. Potter is a nephew of Bishop Potter of New York.

Invitations for an Allegheny Wedding.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Lena Kyle of Liberty street, Allegheny, for the marriage of her sister, Miss Leora Banks, and Howard Wickersham, on Monday evening, October 10. It will be a home wedding at 8 o'clock.

After November 1 Mr. Wickersham and his bride will be at home in Harris street, Harrisburg.

Announcement of an October Wedding.

Among the October weddings will be that of Miss Ethel Myrrhyna Zimmerly, daughter of Mrs. Martha Zimmerly of New Sheffield, Pa., and John Sharon McDonald of Woodlawn, Pa. Mr. McDonald is a son of C. S. McDonald, a well-known contractor and is connected with the Ambridge Savings and Trust Company in Ambridge.

Buzzard-Pile.

An interesting wedding of Tuesday in Oakmont was that of Miss Bertha Buzzard and John Pile. After a dinner at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Pile departed on a tour to the lakes. The Verona Military band serenaded the couple before they departed. They will live in Oakmont on their return, where they are both well known.

Frum-May.

The marriage of Miss Ella Frum of Grant street, Sewickley, and John May of Juniata street, Allegheny, was solemnized yesterday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. J. H. A. Kitsmiller, 1046 Fifth avenue.

A Tarentum Bride-Elect.

Invitations were issued yesterday by Mrs. Harriet Eurich of Tarentum for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Alice M., to Harry Glasce of Pittsburgh. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride, October 12, at 4 o'clock.

Celebrate Twenty-Fifth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Coustillac of North Braddock celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage last night at their home, 532 Hawkins avenue. There were 100 guests present.

AMONG THE CLUBS

Tea for Children's Aid.

A sunshine tea will be given for the benefit of the Children's Aid society on Thursday, October 6, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Mathews, 623 North Negley avenue. The entertainment has been planned to raise funds for the work of the society, which is a well-known charitable organization, whose treasury is now almost empty, because of heavy demands upon it this year. Some new and very pretty features will be introduced at the tea, which will continue throughout the afternoon and evening. The officers of the society will receive informally, assisted by the members of the board of directors.

The officers are: President, Mrs. Horace E. Grant; vice presidents, Mrs. A. J. Greenfield and Mrs. J. A. Hardy; secretary, Miss Sara M. Bryant, and treasurer, Mrs. J. J. Mathews. The other members of the board of directors include Mrs. W. S. Greene, Mrs. W. G. Foster, Mrs. William Wallace, Mrs. J. H. McClean, Mrs. S. A. Rankin, Mrs. J. B. Stevenson, Mrs. R. S. McCague, Mrs. James McRoberts, Mrs. Justian Davitt, Mrs. J. C. Palmer, Mrs. F. G. Harrison, Mrs. A. M. Stevenson, Mrs. J. L. Anderson, Mrs. William Barckley, Mrs. J. H. Armstrong, Mrs. Emil Swensson, Miss Elizabeth Riter, Miss Belle Black, Miss Lillian Butler, Miss Martha Shaw and Mrs. Lydia Boyd.

Transportation to the State Federation.

Notices have been issued of interest to those who are planning to attend the annual meeting of the State Federation of Pennsylvania Women, to be held in Lancaster, October 18, 19 and 20. Miss M. Louise Rohrer, 335 North Duke street, Lancaster, is the general chairman of transportation, with Mrs. William J. Askin, 5412 Howe street, Pittsburgh, chairman, and Mrs. Edward A. Jones, 1814 Franklin street, Allegheny, comprising the local committee. The rate of transportation will be fare and one-third for round trip from all points in Pennsylvania on card orders, these orders to be secured from Miss Rohrer or the local chairman. If the Pittsburgh delegation is sufficiently large a special car may be secured. Further details may be learned from Mrs. Askin.

Day Nursery to Be Formally Opened.

The formal opening of the new home of the Allegheny Day Nursery and Temporary Home, in Perrysville avenue, will be observed today. The housewarming was to have been held last spring, but was postponed because of illness in the house. The nursery and home are now located in the old Marshall homestead, 3035 Perrysville avenue. The hours for the reception will be from 2 o'clock until 5:10. It will also be donation day at the institution.

Reception to Officers and Chairmen.

A reception will be given this evening to the officers and chairmen of the various committees of the South Side branch of the Young Women's Christian association. The branch is commencing a prosperous season, and many classes in the educational branches and in domestic arts have been organized. Miss McKenzie is the general secretary of the branch.

Reception and Donation Day.

The annual reception at the Home for Aged Protestants will be observed this afternoon at the home, in Rebecca and Swissvale avenues, Wilkinsburg. The day is the 32d anniversary of the founding of the institution.

Consumption

Nearly all early cases can be cured. Expert physicians tell us they rely largely on three things—fresh air, good food, and Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. If the case is advanced, recovery is more uncertain. Follow your doctor's orders. That's best.

"I had a terrible cold on my lungs. I feared I might have consumption. Nothing seemed to give me relief until I used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It acted promptly and cured me completely."—Miss Emma Miller, Fort Snelling, Minn.

IN THE THEATERS.

Nothing New or Striking, but a Fairly Entertaining Promise Next Week.

The sale of seats for the engagement at the Nixon next week of "The Sultan of Sulu" began this morning at the box office. Musical numbers that have had much to do with the increasing popularity of "The Sultan of Sulu" are "The Smiling Isle of Sulu," "My Sulu Lulu Lu" and "Engaged in a Sort of a Way."

"The Cavalier," one of Miss Julia Marlowe's best modern plays, will be put forward very handsomely by the Harry Davis stock company next week. The play is a dramatization of Cable's well-known novel of the same name.

"The Flaming Arrow," Lincoln J. Carter's play of the far west, will be the attraction at the Empire theater next week. The play is said to be superbly mounted, the effects and scenery being particularly elaborate and realistic. The large white cast is augmented by a band of genuine Indians, who are in themselves an especially strong feature.

"Down the Pike," a new and tuneful musical comedy, with those famous funmakers, Johnny and Emma Ray, as the stars, will be offered at the Duquesne next week. The production carries 60 people. The Rays are both congenially cast—Johnny as McCorkle, a typical apartment house janitor, and Emma as a strong-minded, jealous wife.

The headliner at the Grand next week will be Annie Irish, an actress of wide experience, who was the feature of "Ben Hur." She will be pleasantly remembered here as leading lady with Mrs. Fiske. Miss Irish will present "An Actress' Christmas," a sketch in which sentiment and comedy are happily blended. There are 15 other fine acts on the bill.

Beginning next Monday at the Bijou Charles E. Blaney's latest melodramatic novelty, entitled "More to Be Pitied Than Scorned," will receive its first performance in this city. The play is a story of the church and stage, and is in four acts and eight scenes. The principal scenes are laid in and around the Amphion theater.

At the Academy next week the famous Reniz Santley Co. will be the attraction. The offering this season is decidedly up-to-date, with many novel and interesting features.

STRIKE NOT IMMINENT.

Fort Wayne Grievance Committee Proceeding Slowly in Its Work.

The Fort Wayne strike situation remains unchanged, according to Vice President Valentine P. Fitzpatrick. The grievance committee expects to have another meeting with General Manager G. L. Pack of the Pennsylvania lines this week and a couple of meetings next week. If all goes well all the matters in dispute may be settled by that time.

No hasty action is being taken by either side and the prospects of a strike resulting are growing smaller.

STEEL PREFERRED CROSSED 72 AND CLOSED AT THE TOP

Reading the Strongest of the Railroad List—General Market Reactionary—Local Securities Active and Irregular.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

United States Steel preferred was the most prominent stock in yesterday's New York market, and with one exception was the only one to score an important gain and close at the top. The stock opened strong and higher at 70¾, and with little interruption advanced to 71¾ during the first half hour. There was a quick reaction to 70⅝, from which there was a steady recovery until the price reached 72½, the highest for more than a year. The close was strong at 72⅝ bid. There seemed to be stop-loss orders to buy to cover shorts on every point advance, and, after the price had crossed 72 the dealings became quite animated and for the time being overshadowed everything else. The rise since Tuesday of last week amounts to exactly 7 per cent, or a full year's dividend at the regular rate, and the mystery of the movement is as deep as ever. For months past it has been contended that there was an enormous outstanding short interest in both the common and preferred stock, but, while the common has remained almost stationary in price, the preferred has been scoring net gains every day. The sustained strength is responsible for surmises that there must be something other than prospects of trade improvement behind the rise. The sinking fund bonds advanced a small fraction to 82⅝ and closed at the top.

The minor iron and steel shares were quiet, but toward the end of the day they were strengthened in sympathy with the leader, and Tennessee Coal and Iron closed at a net advance of 1 per cent. Amalgamated Copper at one time showed an advance of nearly 1 per cent, but subsequently lost much of the gain and closed only ¼ higher for the day. Sugar rallied to 132⅞, but closed at a net decline of ⅜ per cent. The electric stocks were active and higher in the early dealings, but sold off at the close. Among the specialties, American Ice preferred advanced from 30¾ to 34⅛, while American Cotton Oil common, after breaking 2 per cent to 28, recovered to 29¼.

The general market opened strong under the influence of higher quotations from London, where the market for American securities was reported active. As a rule, however, the highest quotations of the day were made during the early part of the session. Thereafter a reactionary tendency appeared, and the declines were only checked by activity in a few specialties, which dominated the market during the remainder of the day.

Reading was the strongest of the railroads and advanced 1½ per cent to 68⅞, closing at 68⅝ bid. About two weeks ago the stock advanced to 70 on purchases which were credited to parties already in control. When this buying ceased it was assumed that the Lake Shore-Baltimore & Ohio interest had accumulated all the additional stock desired, and it is supposed that traders went short. Yesterday's movement looked very much like a drive at the shorts. Except for the strength of Northern Securities on the curb market, where it crossed 108, a new high price for the year, the western railroad stocks were comparatively quiet, closing with much irregularity, but in no instance at any great change for the day. The group of roads traversing the cotton belt were strong and higher. Southern Railway closing 1⅛ per cent higher and Louisville & Nashville 2¼ per cent higher, the latter touching 127½, the highest of the year.

The only prominent financial news item of the day was the announcement by the directors of Ontario & Western of the declaration of a cash dividend of $3 a share, coupled with a proposition for the authorization of $12,000,000 bonds for improvements and to reimburse the company for outlays already made, only $2,000,000 of which will be issued at once.

Commodity markets were irregular. Cotton opened weak, rallied smartly, but later lost part of the gain. Wheat pursued a somewhat similar course, although the official estimates of the French crop were bullish. Corn was strong and higher and closed at a net advance of about a cent.

In the local stock market trading continued active, but prices were irregular. Manufacturers Light and Heat was under some pressure to take profits, possibly on disappointment that only the regular quarterly dividend was declared, and the price declined to 37⅜, but subsequently recovered to 38¼ bid at the close. National Fire Proofing preferred was also weak and declined to 30½, but later recovered to 31¼. The steel stocks were strong, but the net gain was confined to United States Steel preferred, which advanced to and closed at 72¼. Westinghouse Electric advanced to 84½, but reacted to 83½, following the course of the market in the east. Airbrake was unchanged at 138 and Switch and Signal at 70. The only feature of the coal stocks was the advance in River preferred, which was bid up to 22 and closed at the best. Pittsburgh Coal common was offered at 13¼ and the preferred sold unchanged at 61. There were no transactions in Philadelphia Company, but the common was firm at 43 bid and the preferred at 44½ bid. There was a fair demand for pig iron warrants, and 1,200 tons changed hands for various deliveries at prices which represented a decline of from 5 to 10 cents a ton.

Stock market was active, but prices were irregular.

Manufacturers Gas broke to 37⅜, but recovered to 38¼.

National Fire Proofing preferred broke to 30½, but recovered to 31¼.

United States Glass advanced to 42, the highest price for years.

River Coal preferred advanced to and closed at 22 bid.

IN WALL STREET.

United States Steel preferred advanced to 73½ and led the market.

Dealings active, sales including 370,660 shares stock and $4,270,000 bonds.

General market reactionary, but net changes were small.

Reading was the strongest of the railroads, advancing to 68⅞.

Louisville & Nashville reached 127½, the highest of the year.

Three dollar dividend declared on Ontario & Western.

NOTES AND COMMENT.

In local financial circles the impression prevails that there is something back of the rise in United States Steel preferred other than the present or prospective improvement in the iron trade or the necessities of the shorts. A banker who returned from New York this week expressed the opinion that large blocks of stock had been purchased by financiers who would be in a position to know in advance any contemplated action by the Steel board. He suggested the probability that the corporation was contemplating an exchange of the remaining sinking fund bonds for preferred stock, thus completing the conversion operation which was first interrupted by vexatious litigation and later abandoned for the time being because of conditions prevailing in the stock market. This conversion would effect a saving of the difference between 5 per cent on the sinking fund bonds and 7 per cent on the cumulative preferred stock. It may be recalled that the original bond conversion provided for the exchange of $200,000,000 preferred stock for a like amount of new sinking fund bonds and the sale of $50,000,000 of the new bonds at par for cash to provide additional working capital. When the operation was temporarily abandoned, there had been retired $150,000,000 preferred stock with an equal amount of bonds, and there had been sold $30,000,000 bonds for cash. This left in the treasury of the corporation after the cancellation of the syndicate contract $50,000,000 bonds for sale for cash at the discretion of the directors, and $50,000,000 bonds to be exchanged for a like amount of preferred stock, par for par. If this conversion were now made the corporation would save $1,000,000 per annum, representing the difference between 5 per cent on $50,000,000 bonds and 7 per cent on $50,000,000 preferred stock.

At the present time there is just about 10 per cent difference between United States Steel preferred and the sinking fund bonds. The widest difference in the market value of the two classes of securities so far this year has been 17½ per cent, the preferred stock getting as low as 51½, while the bonds at no time this year sold lower than 68¾. Public sentiment would not have countenanced any proposition last spring looking to an exchange of preferred stock into bonds when the difference was so wide, but now that the disparity is being lessened by the recovery in the preferred stock, a proposition to convert would not appear so unreasonable. In an operation of this kind is in contemplation, and the stock is being manipulated for the purpose of making the conversion look attractive, then the comparatively slight advance in the bonds would be accounted for. It would also be entirely logical for the preferred stock to continue relatively stronger than the bonds, because the effect of the conversion would be to diminish the amount of preferred stock outstanding and increase the amount of bonds outstanding. A proposition to convert would not likely be made until the corporation managers were assured of success, because they would try to avert another fiasco in connection with this matter. Two years ago, when the corporation's earnings were exceeding all estimates, the saving or losing of a million dollars appeared to be a small matter, but this year conditions are different, and when net earnings drop to a point which threaten the maintenance of preferred dividends, as they did last spring, the saving of $1,000,000 made possible by the conversion of the remaining $50,000,000 bonds set aside for that purpose, becomes a matter of attractive consideration. Of course, the same objection to such financiering remains as was cited when the plan was first announced—it is not good policy to convert a stock liability into a mortgage liability—but having partly carried out the deal, some people think that the corporation managers intend to complete it.

The Provident Trust Company of Allegheny has declared an initial quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent, payable October 1.

The narrowness of the market for River Coal preferred was demonstrated yesterday when a broker offered the stock at 21⅜ and subsequently bid it up to 22 before he could find a buying order. The stock closed firm at the advance.

It was announced yesterday that Mr. J. Denniston Lyon of N. Holmes & Sons had been suggested for a place on the new board of directors of the Crucible Steel Company by "outside" interests, and that the suggestion had been formally accepted by the Crucible officers, who stated that Mr. Lyon's name would go on the regular ticket to be submitted to stockholders at the annual election next month. This action, it is reported, will remove the possibility of a fight over the election of the new board. The announcement had little or no effect upon the market for the stock, which ruled dull but firm.

The regular quarterly dividend of 1½ per cent on Manufacturers Light and Heat is payable October 20 to stock of record October 1.

Transfer books of Colonial Trust closed yesterday and will reopen Saturday for the regular quarterly dividend of 3 per cent, which is payable October 1.

It is said that at the meeting of the directors of United States Steel on Tuesday—the first since July—the official reports submitted by operating departments were very encouraging.

There are rumors that Southern Pacific preferred will declare a dividend directly after final instalment is paid, which is due December 1, 1904.

The B. B. & B. Trust Company has declared the regular semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent.

The directors of the American Woolen Company have declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the preferred stock, payable on October 15 to stockholders of record at the close of the books October 3. The books will remain closed from October 3 to October 17. This makes the twenty-second consecutive quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent paid to preferred stockholders, amounting to $38 50 a share and $7,700,000 in the aggregate.

The Commonwealth Trust Company has declared a quarterly dividend of 2 per cent.

The First National bank of Birmingham has declared a quarterly dividend of 4 per cent.

BILLET CUTTING RUMORS STARTED

Again It Is Said That Independents Are Selling Below the Association Price.

GENERAL STEEL TRADE NEWS

With an almost suspicious promptness rumors are being started that the price of billets is again in the actual market below that of the Billet association. At a meeting in Pittsburgh last week, which is claimed to have been but meagerly attended, the official price was set at $19 50, Pittsburgh. This price is at least 50 cents above the price at which new billet business had been taken immediately before the meeting, and now the reports are prevalent that what business is to be had is being taken on the $18 basis. How much truth there is in these reports it is impossible to determine at present, but among the independent manufacturers they have obtained wide currency.

There has been one interesting development of the iron and steel situation here during the week by the upgrowth of a tendency to speculate in pig iron. This does not seem to be done so much by means of pig iron warrants, as by furnacemen's receipts. The big iron storage warrant business has, nevertheless, become somewhat more lively here. It is said that one man tried to secure 10,000 tons of northern Bessemer pig iron at the prices which have been prevalent for some time past and the deal may yet be closed. Attempts of this kind are excellent indications of a bull sentiment in the pig iron market. Unless there were a fair amount of assurance that prices would rise there would not be the speculative interest which is being shown. The present range of prices is close to the actual cost of producing pig for the furnaces, which are equipped to operate on the most economical basis. It is a well-known fact that some of the valley furnaces are losing money on every ton of iron they sell.

There is a great deal of activity here at present in southern foundry iron. Several deals of importance, aggregating between 8,000 and 10,000 tons, are to be closed here tomorrow. The basis of these deals has been about $9 25 furnace, the equivalent of $13 60, Pittsburgh. The high phosphorous iron produced at these furnaces suits well certain uses here in manufacturing lines.

The eastern furnaces are inactive at present on account of a shortage of iron cars. Until at least 51 more can be obtained they will not be in the market. Locally, however, furnaces continue to resume operations. The last to be announced is the Rebecca furnace at Kittanning, which will go into blast on October 1.

The coke industry has become very active recently. The best grade of 72-hour Connellsville foundry coke is quoted at $2 05 to $2 35, with $1 80 for the lower grades. Standard Connellsville furnace coke can be had at from $1 45 to $1 65 and the inferior grades as low as $1 45 to $1 60.

In the finished lines the situation is not markedly different from that prevailing for some time past. There are many inquiries, but few orders of importance. The wire and tube mills continue active with considerable business being done by the structural mills. In the last-named line there are prospects of large tonnage being required in the near future. Sheets are in moderate demand and plates are being required by the railroad and car companies in fairly large quantities. Specifications are coming in steadily and a good amount of steel is moving out.

Current Quotations.

Bessemer pig iron—A ton, $12, valley furnaces.

No. 2 foundry iron—A ton, $12 65@12 75, Pittsburgh.

Basic—A ton, $11 00@11 25, furnaces.

The Hardware Market.

The hardware business continues to show great improvement along all lines. Orders are improving in quantities and quality, and coming in freely from salesmen on the road and from the trade throughout the section. The coming of the cooler days has started a heavy demand for cold weather goods, such as gas stoves, coal hods, fire shovels, fenders, oil heaters and other warmth-producing appliances. The demand for builders' hardware, house furnishing gods, tools and general hardware shows a very satisfactory increase. Nails on all lines are firm, no recent changes being noted. The Bindley Hardware Company furnishes the following quotations:

Columbia pocket knives, discount 35 per cent; Albion hatchets, discount 40 per cent; Bindley canal shovels, $6 50 per dozen; Great Western files, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sheet iron, base, $2s 00; $2 35 the 100 pounds; galvanized sheet iron, discount 70 and 10 per cent; sash weights, a ton, $27 00; window glass, L. PEACHES WERE FIRMER; NEW CANTALOUPES HERE

Flour Is Easier—Warm Weather Has Bad Effect on Millfeed.

Peaches were very scarce here yesterday. There was a good supply of Maryiands on hand, but the stock was not of a character that was wanted. Receipts were light generally in the produce line, the total run being one car of apples, one car of cantaloupes, one car of grapes and 26 cars of bananas. The banana receipts were the heaviest for any one day in months, but the demand is creditable at present and stock is disposed of easily at prevailing prices. Grapes are quoted lower and the demand for them is looking up. The first Pallisade cantaloupes that ever arrived in the Pittsburgh market came in yesterday. The stock was small, however. Cantaloupes are likely to hold out about two weeks yet, according to the jobbers.

There were no changes in the grocery line, flour showing easier and jobbers displaying a disposition to shade prevailing quotations. Sugar is firm and in good request. Coffee is holding its own well. Cheese is firm and on the advance. Butter is steady to firm and eggs are quoted higher. Sales of strictly fresh were reported yesterday as high as 23½ cents. Poultry is moving freely and prices are quiet.

Shelled corn is quiet and ear corn is showing easier now. Oats are steady here and indications point to a still easier market. Warmer weather has had a depressing effect on millfeed and trade on it is of a mand-to-mouth character, only. Good hay is still in excellent demand, but other grades are not wanted. Straw is still scarce and high, and prices are likely to soar for sometime.

HAY, GRAIN AND FEED.

Receipts bulletined: Pennsylvania, 19 cars hay, 11 cars oats, 5 cars rye, 2 cars straw, 1 car corn; Baltimore & Ohio, 12 cars hay, 1 car straw, 2 cars corn; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, 4 cars hay, 3 cars corn, 2 cars rye, 1 car oats.

Upper formation fell Short, but Big Lime Responded to the Drill

There is still some spearig around for an extension to the Wick and Hebron pools. In the last named the Carter Oil Company has met with a surprise at its test on the H. D. Owens farm. Nothing was found when it was drilled through the upper formation, but when drilled into the Big Lime it found a pay and is estimated to be good for 20 barrels a day from that level. However it will be drilled through the Big Injun and if nothing better is encountered it will be tested in the Big Lime.

On Bonds creek, Grant district, Ritchie county, Root & Duff Bros. have drilled their test on the Collins-Davis farm through the Big Injun and have a duster. North of Powther run, on Bonds creek, unknown parties have drilled a test on the Hulderman farm through the same formation and have a duster. On Douglass run, in the same district, Proper & Co. have completed a second test on the F. Cochran farm and had the same kind of luck.

On Bunnells run, Clay district, the McKelvey Oil Company has drilled its No. 4 on the Ben McGinnis farm through the Squaw sand, and has a show for a 10 or 15-barrel pumper. On Bonds creek the Carter Oil Company has completed its second test on the W. W. Neptune farm and has a fair gasser. On Lizzie Roost run, in the same district, the Carter company is starting a test on the Peter Stewart farm. On Poe Comfort run, in Grant district, the Carter company is starting a test on the John Grimes farm. On the South fork of Hughes river, Murphy district, Lockwood & Curry have completed the rig for No. 4, on the J. P. Kennedy farm.

In the Yellow Creek district, in Calhoun county, the South Penn Oil Company has completed its No. 3 on the H. H. Jackson farm and has a show for a 50 or 75-barrel producer in the Berea grit. On Leading creek, Sheridan district, Calhoun county, R. G. Gillespie has drilled his test on the John F. Moats farm through the salt sand, and has developed some gas. It is now drilling through the lower sands.

South of Smithfield, Wetzel county, the South Penn company has drilled its No. 13 on the Isaac Hoge farm 85 feet into the Big Injun and has a fair showing of oil. It will be given a shot and tested.

In the Salem district, Harrison county, the South Penn company has drilled its No. 5 on the Samuel Gain farm into the top of the Gordon and the hole has filled up 100 feet with fluid.

On the east side of the Folsom district the South Penn has drilled its No. 2 on the F. V. Mason farm 30 feet into the Gordon and has a show for light pumper. The same company has drilled its No. 2 on the Jesse Talkington farm 10 feet into the stray and has a light gas pressure, but no oil. It the same district No. 3, on the Mary Moore farm, is holding up at 150 barrels a day.

In the Pine Grove extension, Wetzel county, the South Penn company has given its No. 4, on the R. J. Postalwait farm, a shot and has increased its production to 100 barrels a day. In the Mannington district, Marion county, the same company's No. 1 on the C. S. Pitzer farm, is holding up at 3 barrels a day and No. 10, on the D. Toothman farm, in the Fairview district, 185 barrels a day.

On the Ohio side, in the Rays run district, Washington county, the Associated Producers' Company has drilled its test on J. J. Heckathorn farm through the Big Injun and found that formation barren. It is now drilling to the Berea grit.

Near Newport, in the same county, the Monroe Oil Company has completed its second test on the Carpenter farm and has a show for a very light pumper. In the Cow Run sand. In the same district the Chatham Oil Company has completed its test on the Valentine farm, and has a show for a 5-barrel pumper in the Keener sand.

Near Blacksville, Greene county, Pa., the South Penn company has drilled its test on the L. L. Thompson farm into the Gordon and has a show for a fair producer in that formation.

On the Ohio side much new work is starting the result of which will not be known for some time. The Rock Bottom Oil Company, Carter Oil Company, McKee & Orcutt Associated Producers' Company, Hartman Oil Company, Henning & Ewing, Tibbs & Wilmington, American Drilling Company and a number of others, are leading operators in this district.

WHEAT IS BUOYANT ON FRENCH REPORTS

Shortage in Crop Will Probably Call for Large American Exports.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Shortage of wheat in France, as shown by official figures, had a buoyant effect on speculative prices here today. At the close December wheat was up¼c. May showed an advance of ¼c. Corn is up 1¼c. Oats netted a gain of ¼c. Provisions are 7½c to 15c lower.

Indifference of foreign grain markets to an advance here yesterday had a depressing influence on wheat at the opening. Liberal receipts in the northwest aided in bringing out realizing sales. Quotations on December were nearly steady, ranging from ⅛c off to ⅛c at $1 11⅜ to $1 11¾. May opened ⅛c to ¼c lower at $1 12⅝ to $1 12¾. Immediately after the opening the May option touched $1 12¾@1 12½. The market then made a quick rally, December advancing to $1 12¾ and May to $1 13½. The sudden change in sentiment was due to numerous buying orders from southwestern houses. The demand was based upon an opinion reported as prevailing at Kansas City and St. Louis that a material reduction in receipts is impending. On the bulge, realizing sales were heavy and the result was an easier feeling and a fractional decline. Later in the day sentiment in the pit became quite bullish. One of the main influences was the announcement of the official figures on the wheat crop of France. According to this estimate the total yield shows a decrease of 68,000,000 bushels compared with last year's crop. Taking these figures as a basis, a well-known foreign crop statistician made the claim that 32,000,000 bushels of wheat will have to be imported into France. The larger part of the imported grain, it was asserted, will have to be shipped from America. The domestic flour situation was an added stimulus to the purchase of wheat. The high point on December was reached at $1 13¾, while May sold up to $1 14¼. A reaction occurred late in the final trading as a result of liberal liquidation, much of the gain being lost. The close, however, was firm, with December at $1 12½. Final quotations on May were at $1 13⅜. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 16,200 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,328,500 bushels against 1,116,600 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 1,062 cars, compared with 678 cars last week, and 858 cars a year ago.

During the early part of the session an easy tone prevailed in the corn pit, but sentiment experienced a radical change later in the day, the market becoming decidedly strong. Warm weather and easy cables were weakening influences at the start. Bullish crop reports form northern Illinois started active covering by shorts, resulting in the late strength. December opened unchanged to ¼c lower at 50¼c to 50⅜c, sold between 50⅛c and 50¾c and closed at 51⅛c. Local receipts were 184 cars with 17 of contract grade.

The strength of corn was the main factor in holding oats firm. Shorts were fair purchasers but offerings were comparatively light. December opened a shade to ⅛@¼c lower at 30¼@30⅜c to 30⅜@30½c, ranged between 30⅛c and 30⅝c and closed at 30⅜c. Local receipts were 166 cars.

Provisions were weak in sympathy with a decline of 10c at the yards, and increased receipts of hogs. There was considerable liquidation of October holdings. At the close January pork was off 15c, at $13 15. Lard was down 10c, at $7 67½. Ribs were 7½@10c lower, at $6 82½. Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 79 cars; corn, 138 cars; oats, 155 cars; hogs, 18,000 head.

LD CITY TO ET LOCAL TRAINS

w Town Will Profit Much by Wabash Suburban Service.

BRUSHTON PROPERTY WANTED

Gould City, half of which is within the corporate limits of Bridgeville, is at last to get some substantial benefit from the Wabash railroad which really brought the town into being. The first local suburban train on the Wabash will be run, it is expected, about October 3, when the finishing touches to the new Wabash station in Murray avenue will have been completed. The station is a frame structure with Swiss roof and will seat 100 people in the waiting rooms.

The building boom which was predicted to follow the entrance of the Wabash has already started. At Washington avenue and Murray street Dr. McCarvey will build a three-story brick business block to cost $12,000. Another $8,000 business block in the same street has just been completed. Joseph Harmuth will build a $7,500 residence at Chess and Calvert streets, and six more new houses are to be built near by. A new $40,000 school building is being built in Washington avenue, and the First National bank has under way a fine three-story bank and office building.

Within the last three months improvements to the value of $265,000 have been made or contracted for in Gould City and Bridgeville. More than a mile and a half of Washington avenue has been supplied with stone curbings and stone sidewalks, and $12,000 will be expended next spring by the Wabash Improvement Company in paving and improving the streets on the bluff which overlooks the Wabash terminal shops, where ground will be broken next summer for the car sheds. Since the Wabash Improvement Company opened its plan of lots in Gould City $188,000 worth of vacant frontage has been marketed. The company will have another sale of lots in November if train service justifies; if not the balance of its property will be offered at public sale in the spring.

Pennsy Wants Big Property.

Reports that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is trying to secure a block of property in Brushton has received what is thought to be further confirmation by the attempts made to buy the property of the Hays Coal and Supply Company. This company owns nearly an acre of ground fronting on the railroad and extending back to Madeira street. No option has yet been secured from the owners. Options were also sought last week on several smaller properties on both sides of the railroad near Brushton avenue. It is reported the railroad company has secured the property formerly owned by C. F. Lang, on the north side of the tracks. Last year it was announced a glass plant would be built on the site, but the project was abandoned. The Brushton freight yards are too small for the railroad's use, and two or three trains are often seen standing across the Brushton avenue crossing.

The largest sale of Chislett street property made for some time was that of the Carl Hartwig holdings at the southwest corner of Chislett street and Stanton avenue, Nineteenth ward, which was announced yesterday. The plot is irregular in shape, measuring 64x17x137x139 feet. It is opposite the T. H. Given frontage and is a locality where houses are in good demand. The purchaser was John F. Hovis, who also secured a frame house on lot 105x200 feet in Craig street, near Center avenue, Thirteenth ward, the price for the two properties being $23,000.

Latest News in Building.

Bids will be taken early next week for the two school houses to be erected at Hawkins station and Wilkins place, Swissvale. The plans of Architect F. G. Scheibler, Jr., of Wilkinsburg, were accepted last week, and estimates will be rushed in order that the contracts may be awarded and work started as soon as the bond issue is arranged.

Engineer Victor Buettner has plans for the big cement plant of the Pennsylvania Portland Cement Company at New Castle. The estimated cost of the plant is $500,000.

Bids are being taken by Architect E. J. Carlisle & Company for a house for George S. Speidel at Swissvale, to cost $20,000.

WALLACE IS NOW OFFICIALLY SUPERINTENDENT OF POLICE

Alexander H. Wallace, who has been acting superintendent of police, has made good in the eyes of his superior officers and is now superintendent in fact. His appointment was made yesterday by Director Harry Moore of the department of public safety to take effect Saturday. The appointment of assistant superintendent of police will also be made that day. Mayor Hays and Director Moore have been greatly pleased with Mr. Wallace's management of the police bureau and decided he was competent to hold the position permanently.

Alexander H. Wallace.

Wallace was born in this city in 1862. He comes from an old family, his father being one of the foremost merchants of Pittsburgh. He attended the Pittsburgh academy for years and afterward became engaged in business with his father and left this city in 1896. He returned here April, 1902, and was appointed on the detective bureau by Mayor Hays.

As Director Moore and Mayor Hays were having some difficulty in the management of the police bureau, Wallace was appointed as assistant superintendent of the bureau and given entire charge April 1. Since that time he has cleared the city of thieves and criminals and has the department working on a businesslike system. Wallace has sent some 400 persons to the workhouse and penitentiary.

BISHOP POTTER AGAIN SPOKE AGAINST DIVORCE

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Bishop Henry C. Potter attacked divorce in vigorous terms in his report today in the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of New York. He declared unless the church set itself against the spread of the evil society would relapse into a state of practical barbarism. He urged the clergy to set itself against divorce, which he characterized as a "Godless license which flings aside the most sacred vows because of vexatious incongeniality."

The archbishop of Canterbury was the central figure at the convention. At the crypt of the cathedral of St. John prayer was offered and holy communion administered. The archbishop of Canterbury occupied the throne and conducted the services.

In the afternoon the archbishop attended the formal opening exercises of the one hundred and fifty-first academic year of Columbia university, and received the honorary degree of LL. D.

SPELLBINDERS AT WORK.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Arrangements are rapidly being completed for the assignment of Democratic speakers. W. Bourke Cockran of New York and James M. Head of Tennessee, are to speak at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia, October 8. Mr. Cockran is also billed for New Haven, November 4.

Charles A. Towne speaks October 1 at Lima, O.; October 3, at Sandusky, and October 13 at New Haven, Conn. Former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Charles S. Hamlin will speak at Fort Wayne, Ind., tomorrow evening. Representative Morris Sheppard of Texas will enter the Wisconsin campaign with a speech at Madison tomorrow evening and will remain in the state until October 8. Senator Joseph W. Bailey of Texas has been engaged for a speech at Charleston, W. Va. Former Congressman John S. Crosby of Massachusetts and Former Comptroller Bird S. Coler of Brooklyn, will speak at Hartford, Conn., October 5. Representative Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama is to speak at Hempstead, L. I., tomorrow evening.

ENORMOUS GASSER FOUND IN KNOX-LICKING FIELD

Southeastern Ohio produced one of the greatest gassers in its history yesterday when the Ohio Fuel Supply Company brought in a well which shows a rock pressure of 775 pounds and looks good for 8,500,000 cubic feet a day. The well comes from Knox county, one of the best gas producing fields in the state, and the value of which is greatly enhanced by this latest strike. In addition to its enormity the well also has the merit of being four miles in advance of development. It is located in the center of a block of leases containing 10,000 acres, and opens up an immense scope of new territory.

BONNEVILLE CHOSEN FOR HIGHEST OFFICE

Elected President of Pennsylvania State Hotel-Keepers' Association at Convention Yesterday.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, Sept. 28.—The Pennsylvania State Hotel Men's association will not affiliate with any liquor dealers' association. This decision was reached by the hotelkeepers at the final session of their state convention today. No person can join the association who does not do a strictly hotel business and does not have at least 25 first-class rooms.

The next convention will be held in October, 1905, at Cambridge Springs and will be followed four weeks later by a meeting in Philadelphia. The following officers were elected: E. E. Bonneville, president, Hotel Henry, Pittsburgh; Charles Duffy, first vice president, Lochiel hotel, Harrisburg; E. M. Garwood, second vice president, Zimmerman house, Greensburg; S. Murray Mitchell, third vice president, Aldine hotel, Philadelphia; J. H. Butterworth, fourth vice president, Bolton house, Harrisburg; Charles E. Fairman, secretary, Daily Hotel Reporter, Pittsburgh, and Joe Bensinger, treasurer, Commercial hotel, DuBois.

MASS MEETING ARRANGED.

Teachers' Association Concludes Arrangements to State Case.

The Pittsburgh Teachers' association has completed arrangements for the mass meeting to be held in Carnegie hall tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Local speakers of note are to address the meeting on the necessity for better remuneration for the public school teachers of Allegheny county.

Among speakers who have accepted invitations to address the meeting are the Rev. Dr. N. C. Schaeffer, state superintendent of public instruction; County Superintendent Samuel Hamilton, and the Rev. Dr. J. Leonard Levy. Special music will also be provided.

On Saturday morning the Pittsburgh Teachers' institute will convene in Syria temple, Washington street. Officers will be nominated and elected and an address will be made by County Superintendent Samuel Hamilton.

LOOKS TO PHILIPPINES FOR TROPICAL PRODUCTS

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., Sept. 28.—At the Binghamton Industrial exposition today Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, speaking of the Philippines, said: "The United States has sent a corps of scientists to show the islanders how to produce the $2,000,000,000 of products that we must buy from tropical countries, and which cannot be grown in the United States. We propose that these islands shall furnish us with these products."

County Commissioners Meet.

SCRANTON, PA., Sept. 28.—At the convention of county commissioners of the state, which opened here today with 100 delegates, representing every county in the state, it was decided to recommend that advertisements of election proclamations be done away with. A bill providing for this was drawn up, and will be introduced at the next legislature.

JONES IS DUMPED BY BOSS GORMAN

BRYANITES AWAIT OPENING

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Herald Building, Herald Square. NEW YORK, Sept. 28.

James K. Jones, former chairman of the Democratic national committee, and recognized representative of the Bryan wing of the Democracy, who, Chairman Taggart announced some time ago, would be attached to the committee for the remainder of the campaign, has given up his office at national headquarters and returned to his home in Washington.

This elimination of Mr. Jones from the management of the campaign is followed by the report Joseph Johnson of Kansas, one of the principal promoters of the Hearst boom, and who was William F. Sheehan's predecessor as chairman of the national executive committee, is also to give up his desk at headquarters and either refrain from further participation in the campaign or be shifted to the western headquarters projected in Indianapolist.

Senator Gorman came to New York to act in an "advisory capacity" shortly before it was decided that Mr. Jones' office was needed for a literary bureau. Soon after Mr. Gorman's advent into the committee's councils there is said to have been a disagreement as to who should be designated in some of the middle western states to circulate literature and attend to various other functions. James K. Jones favored Bryan followers, and Gorman thought an opportunity was offered to further the "reorganization" of the party in the hands of the "safe and sane" elements.

Joseph Johnson supported Mr. Jones in these matters, and being more familiar with the details of western organization than anyone else, was able frequently to carry his point. Johnson says openly if Parker is defeated the Bryan element expects to oust the eastern wing from control of the party.

PICKETED THE SCHOOL.

Chicago Pupils Went on Strike Because of Rumored Employment of Colored Teacher.

CHICAGO, Sept. 28.—Fifty boy pickets stationed about the McAllister public school here prevented pupils from entering today. Outside the picket cordon a crowd of 700 boys and girls hooted and yelled at the teachers. They threatened violence against any child daring to enter the school yard.

After a detail of six policemen had been sent to the school to preserve order the "strike" was "settled." A committee appointed by the youthful strikers learned that the rumor of a colored teacher having been employed in the school was false.

RECORD-BREAKING CHECK.

New York Candidate for Lieutenant Governor Gives $50,000 to Empire State Campaign Fund.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—Francis Burton Harrison, Democratic nominee for lieutenant governor, today presented to Cord Meyer, chairman of the Democratic state committee, a check for $50,000, according to a man who said he saw the check.

This is the record-breaking contribution to a state campaign fund. In fact, it is said to equal any individual contribution to a national campaign fund. Henry G. Davis, nominee for vice president, gave a similar sum to the national committee.

Thought to Be a Campaign Trick.

BERLIN, Sept. 28.—(Special.)—The papers here comment widely on the peace conference idea of President Roosevelt, which most of them consider as a campaign trick invented by the president to disarm the anti-imperialists and to enable him to pose as an advocate of peace. "To those who know President Roosevelt," says a prominent Berlin paper today, "there is little doubt that he is laughing in his sleeve at the whole affair and that the idea will be dropped immediately after the presidential election in November."

Says Shorter Charges Are Untrue.

Warden Edward Lewis of the county jail yesterday investigated the charges made by Robert Shorter. Shorter was a witness in a murder trial and was discharged from the jail after a stay of 121 days. He said his health was ruined because of the treatment he received while imprisoned. The warden says there are no grounds for the allegation.

Bankers Will Help Receiver.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 28.—A group of bankers has been named by the creditors of the Aultman company of Canton, O., to co-operate with Receiver Sullivan in straightening out the affairs of the concern, which made an assignment recently with liabilities aggregating $1,500,000.

THE TRYING TIME

In a young girl's life is reached when Nature leads her uncertain steps across the line which divides girlhood from womanhood. Ignorance and neglect at this critical period are largely responsible for much of the after misery of womanhood. Not only does Nature often need help in the regular establishment of the womanly function, but there is almost always need of some safe, strengthening tonic, to overcome the languor, nervousness and weakness, commonly experienced at this time.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription establishes regularity. It is a strengthening tonic, soothing the nerves, encouraging the appetite and inducing restful sleep. It contains no alcohol neither opium, cocaine or other narcotic.

"I wish to tell you the benefit we have received from using your remedies," writes Mrs. Dan Hall, of Bethead, Green Co., Wis. "Two years ago my daughter's health began to fail. Everything that could be thought of was done to help her but it was of no use. When she began to complain she was quite stout; weighed 170, the picture of good health, until about the age of fourteen, then in six months she was so run down her weight was but 120. She kept failing and I gave up, thinking there was no use, she must die. Friends all said, 'You will lose your daughter.' I said I fear I shall. I must say, doctor, that only for your 'Favorite Prescription' my daughter would have been in her grave to-day. When she had taken one-half bottle the natural function was established and we bought another one, making only two bottles in all, and she completely recovered. Since then she is as well as can be."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.
